hypothetical scenarios many of which incorporate useful images to enhance explanation and interpretation reflects the clinically oriented nature of the FRCS examination The scenarios are presented in a concise structured manner adhering to a question and answer format that is conducive to both solo and group study sessions Candidates are encouraged to actively engage and articulate their knowledge effectively while also identifying areas that require further study The content has been carefully compiled to reflect the most recent changes in the examination format and includes newer cases that candidates may encounter such as those relevant to the clinical challenges posed by the COVID 19 pandemic The text is further enhanced by drawing on the latest research and providing extensive recommendations for further reading across a broad spectrum of resources This guide is the result of contributions from a team of highly experienced surgical trainers and educators all of whom are actively involved in postgraduate medical education and have a wealth of experience in preparing candidates for this demanding examination It is an invaluable tool for anyone committed to achieving success in the FRCS General Surgery examination

FRCS General Surgery Section 1: 500 SBAs and EMIs Alasdair Wilson,Diane Hildebrand,2018-03-20 FRCS General Surgery Section 1 500 SBAs and EMIs Second Edition has been thoroughly revised to ensure the content remains completely up to date and accurate With 50 new questions FRCS General Surgery Section 1 500 SBAs and EMIs offers the most relevant and comprehensive set of practice questions for trainees preparing for the exam Chapters are mapped to the syllabus to deliver structured revision in all the key topics tested in the exam Featuring a wealth of practice questions and fully descriptive answers this book provides the essential revision tool to maximise chances of success 500 SBA and EMI scenario based questions reflecting the formats encountered in the exam Answers feature concise case based descriptions to consolidate knowledge Extensive evidence based referencing to relate theory to clinical practice Visually enhanced answers to improve understanding of key concepts

Frcs: Companion Cases for the Intercollegiate Exam in General Surgery 2e Alexander Phillips,Bhaskar Kumar,2022-09-30 This is the second edition of the successful revision guide from Alex Phillips and Bhaskar Kumar It has been fully updated with new contributors to accommodate changes in the format of the exam and also to provide new cases that may be encountered including scenarios relevant to the treatment and experiences of COVID 19 It draws on the very latest research and gives recommendations for further reading across a broad range of resources It is a comprehensive guide for the FRCS General Surgery Intercollegiate exam serving as a companion for the trainee throughout the course of the six year training rotation It reflects the exact framework of the exam syllabus issued by the Joint Committee on Higher Surgical Training JCHST and contains the most recently amended guidelines The FRCS exam is very clinically orientated with vivas based on a clinical scenario using patients and images as a method of initiating discussion This book contains hundreds of examples of such hypothetical scenarios giving the readers the opportunity to find out and explain what they already know to express that knowledge to the best effect and also to focus on areas where they may need more study There are also scenarios containing colour images for explanation and interpretation just as will be required in the actual exam The question and answer style used is a popular and effective method which lends itself perfectly to studying either alone or as a group wherein one acts as examiner and the other as candidate Both the editors and main contributors have passed the FRCS exam in general surgery have many years experience in postgraduate medical education and are also active in teaching and preparing candidates for the exam

Finals in Surgery Alastair M. Thompson, Kenneth G. M. Park, 2001 Intended primarily for those preparing for their final clinical examination in General Surgery this book covers only the clinical part of the exam examined as short and long cases OSCEs as well as viva and approaches the usual surgical problems from that perspective It concentrates on the type of questions asked by the examiners and how to respond in a way that will give the candidate the best chance of success

Cracking the Intercollegiate General Surgery FRCS Viva Elizabeth Ball, Stewart Walsh, Tjun Tang, 2013-12-17 The FRCS examination is the last hurdle on the road to independent practice as a consultant surgeon in the United Kingdom and Ireland The voce viva portion of the exam can be particularly challenging for candidates who must demonstrate not only their knowledge of various surgical topics but also their reasoning and decision making abilities Crack FRCS General

Surgery Viva Topics and Revision Notes Stephen Brennan, 2011 What are the indications for necrosectomy How you perform an EUA for acute peri anal sepsis What do you understand by the term Early Goal Directed Therapy EGDT Remember this is a consultant s exam and giving a range of options is not good enough You must tell the examiner what you as a consultant are going to do The FRCS is a uniquely challenging prospect highly detailed wide ranging and encompassing both theory and practice Preparation for this exam can be very difficult and resources tailored to it are scarce As the consolidated notes of a recent successful candidate this book is an essential resource when preparing for the viva The wide variety of questions require you to define diagnose or choose between treatment options while MCQs and SBAs help you to objectively evaluate your progress a unique supplement to your study plan Answers provided are comprised of an invaluable combination of detailed written answers and lists that will remind you of key points and help you structure your preparation Provided by publisher Cracking the Intercollegiate General Surgery FRCS Viva Tjun Tang, Elizabeth Ball, Elizabeth O'Riordan, Stewart Walsh, 2020
