From Orientalism To Postcolonialism Asia Europe And The Lineages Of Difference Routledge Contemporary Asia Series By Mazumdar Sucheta Published By Routledge:

From Orientalism to Postcolonialism Sucheta Mazumdar,Vasant Kaiwar,Thierry Labica,2010-11 An intervention in one of the most fundamental debates confronting the social science and humanities namely how to understand global and local historical processes as interconnected developments affecting human actors From Orientalism to

Postcolonialism Sucheta Mazumdar,Vasant Kaiwar,Thierry Labica,2010-11-01 This book uses a historical and theoretical focus to examine the key of issues of the Enlightenment Orientalism concepts of identity and difference and the contours of different modernities in relation to both local and global shaping forces including the spread of capitalism The contributors present eight in depth studies and a substantial theoretical introduction utilizing primary and secondary sources in Turkish Farsi Chinese not to mention English French and German in the effort to engage materials and cultural perspectives from diverse regions It provides a critical attempt to think through the potentialities and limitations of area studies and civilizational approaches to the production of knowledge about the modern world and the often obscured relationship between the fragment and the whole or the particular and universal The book is an intervention in one of the most fundamental debates confronting the social science and humanities namely how to understand global and local historical processes as interconnected developments affecting human actors From Orientalism to Postcolonialism will be of interest to academics and postgraduate students in Cultural and Postcolonial Studies and Asian studies and Middle Eastern studies

The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar,2014-05-08 In The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar presents a far reaching analysis of the political economic and ideological cross currents that have shaped and informed postcolonial studies preceding and following the 1989 moment of world history The valences of the post in postcolonialism are unfolded via some key historical political postcolonial texts showing inter alia that they are replete with elements of Romantic Orientalism and the Oriental Renaissance Kaiwar mobilises a critical body of classical and contemporary Marxism to demonstrate that far richer understandings of Europe not to mention colonialism modernity and difference are possible than with a postcolonialism captive to phenomenological existentialism and post structuralism concluding that a narrative so enriched is indispensable for a transformative non Eurocentric internationalism Michel Ocelot Laura Buono,2023-12-01 This unique book examines the career of Michel Ocelot from his earliest works to his latest research and productions including an interview regarding his latest film Le Pharaon le Sauvage et la Princesse 2022 The book highlights the director s role in the panorama of contemporary animated cinema and his relationship with the tradition both artistic and cinematographic The book carefully analyses the ethical and social nature of Ocelot s work to underscore the duality of the director s oeuvre both artistic and social using an interdisciplinary approach that blends film and aesthetic criticism with gender studies and decolonial thought Particular attention will be given to the themes of multiculturalism discrimination and treatment of women which are at the centre of many current cultural debates The book will be of interest to an audience of experts animation enthusiasts and film scholars as well as to a wider readership interested in learning about the poetics of Kirikou's father

China and Global Capitalism L. Chun, 2013-12-05 In this concise historical and conceptual analysis of China's evolving position in a world defined predominantly by global capitalist development Lin offers a critical review of relevant debates and discusses the imperative and feasibility of a socialist Chinese model reconstructed as an alternative to standardized modernity at an impasse

Alterities in Asia Leong Yew, 2010-11-18 This book investigates the politics of identity in Asia and explores how different groups of people inside and outside Asia have attempted to relate to the alterity of the places and cultures in the region through various modes literary and filmic representation scholarly knowledge and so on and at different points in time Although coming from different perspectives like literary criticism film studies geography cultural history and political science the contributors collectively argue that Asian otherness is more than the dialectical interplay between the Western self and one of its many others and more than just the Orientalist discourse writ large Rather they demonstrate the existence of multiple levels of inter Asian and intercultural contact and consciousness that both subvert as much as they consolidate the dominant Western Core Asian periphery framework that structures what the mainstream assumes to be knowledge of Asia With chapters covering a wealth of topics from Korea and its Cold War history to Australia's Asian identity crisis this book will be of huge interest to anyone interested in critical Asian studies Asian ethnicity postcolonialism and Asia cultural studies Leong Yew is an Assistant Professor in the University Scholars Programme National University of Singapore He is the author of The Disjunctive Empire of International Relations 2003

Re-Orientalism and South Asian Identity Politics Lisa Lau, Ana Cristina Mendes, 2012-05-23 Orientalism refers to the imitation of aspects of Eastern cultures in the West and was devised in order to have authority over the Orient The concept of Re Orientalism maintains the divide between the Orient and the West However where Orientalism is based on how the West constructs the East Re Orientalism is grounded on how the cultural East comes to terms with an orientalist East This book explores various new forms objects and modes of circulation that sustain this renovated form of Orientalism in South Asian culture The contributors identify and engage with recent debates about postcolonial South Asian identity politics discussing a range of different texts and films such as The White Tiger Bride Prejudice and Kama Sutra: A Tale of Love Providing new theoretical insights from the areas of literature film studies and cultural and discourse analysis this book is an stimulating read for students and scholars interested in South Asian culture postcolonial studies and identity politics

Memory, Trauma, Asia Rahul K. Gairola, Sharanya Jayawickrama, 2023-05 This volume explores the complex and surprising intersections of literature history ethics affect and social justice across the region through its wide ranging but closely comparative focus on geopolitical sites across East South and Southeast Asia

Diaspora Literature and Visual Culture Sheng-mei Ma, 2013-04-15 This book offers an incisive and ambitious critique of Asian Diaspora culture looking specifically at literature and visual popular culture Sheng mei Ma's engaging text discusses issues of self and its relationship with Asian Diaspora culture in the global twenty first century Using examples from Asia Asian America and Asian Diaspora from the West the book weaves a narrative that challenges the twenty first century triumphal discourse of Asia and argues that given the long shadow cast across modern film and literature this upward mobility is inescapably escapist a flight from itself Asia's stunning self transformation is haunted by self alienation The chapters discuss a wealth of topics including Asianness Orientalism and Asian American identity drawing on a variety of pop culture sources from The Matrix Trilogy to Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon This book forms an analysis of the new idea of Asian Diaspora that cuts across area ethnicity and nation incorporating itself into the contemporary global culture whilst retaining a distinct Asian flavor Covering the mediums of literature film and visual cultures this book will be of immense interest to scholars and students of Asian studies and literature ethnic studies cultural studies and film

Reassessing Orientalism Michael Kemper, Artemy M. Kalinovsky, 2015 Orientalism as a concept was first applied to Western colonial views of the East Subsequently different types of orientalism were discovered but the premise was that these took their lead from Western style orientalism applying it in different circumstances This book on the other hand argues that the diffusion of interpretations and techniques in orientalism was not uni directional and that the different orientologies Western Soviet and oriental orientologies were interlocked in such a way that a change in any one of them affected the others that the different orientologies did not

Orientalism and the Postcolonial Predicament Carol A. Breckenridge, Peter van der Veer, 1993 This book explores the ways in which colonial administrators constructed knowledge about the society and culture of India and the processes through which that knowledge has shaped past and present Indian reality

The New Asian Renaissance Francois Godement, 2013-04-15 The New Asian Renaissance provides the first comprehensive history of today's East Asia tracing the essential stages in the rise of the region from its birth under colonial rule to the post Cold War era Recounting the evolution of China Japan North and South Korea Malaysia Singapore Burma the Philippines Thailand Vietnam Francois Godement outlines the major forces that have shaped East Asia into its present economic shape Originally published in French this work is an essential tool for understanding the past present and future of a region that has become a significant actor in the international political economy

The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar, 2015 In this incisive and impeccably researched critique of Postcolonialism Kaiwar argues that subaltern studies itself is marred by orientalism

Asia in Europe, Europe in Asia Srilata Ravi, Mario Rutten, Beng-Lan Goh, 2004-06-30 The book presents a unique combination of the study of contemporary and historical practices between Asia and Europe and brings forth some of the latest thinking on the subject Recent debates have centered primarily on contemporary aspects of the Europe Asia partnership in terms of international relations and economic linkages The present volume complements this political and economic interest in Europe Asia relationship by focusing on the academic social and cultural connections between the two regions The contributions in this volume have a contemporary focus but contextualize the themes within a historical perspective They deal with academic discourses on the region on modernity and entrepreneurship they discuss the long term exchange of knowledge in specific scientific fields and they focus on the cultural interconnections in the area of film literature and migration The originality of this book lies in its interdisciplinary approach to the question of Asia Europe and in its emphasis on the multifaceted complexity of the relationship between these two regions It brings together the diversity of local histories ideas and agencies in both Europe and Asia into a universal project of knowledge formation in order to reveal their contribution to the making of the world we are in

Orientalism and Reverse Orientalism in Literature and Film Sharmani Patricia Gabriel, Bernard Wilson, 2021-06-17

Acknowledging the significance of Edward Said's Orientalism for contemporary discourse the contributors to this volume deconstruct rearrange and challenge elements of his thesis looking at the new conditions and opportunities offered by globalization What can a renewed or reconceptualized Orientalism teach us about the force and limits of our racial imaginary specifically in relation to various national contexts In what ways for example considering our greater cross cultural interaction have clichés and stereotypes undergone a metamorphosis in contemporary societies and cultures Theoretically and empirically this book offers an expansive range of contexts comprising the insights analytical positions and perspectives of a transnational team of scholars of comparative literature and literary and cultural studies based in Australia Hong Kong Japan Malaysia USA Singapore Taiwan and Turkey Working with through and beyond Orientalism they examine a variety of cultural texts including the novel short story poetry film graphic memoir social thought and life writing Making connections across centuries and continents they articulate cultural representation and discourse through multiple approaches including critical content analysis historical contextualization postcolonial theory gender theory performativity intertextuality and intersectionality Given its unique approach this book will be essential reading for scholars of literary theory film studies and Asian studies as well as for those with a general interest in postcolonial literature and film

Cosmopolitan Asia Sharmani Gabriel, Fernando Rosa, 2015-09-25

One key concept in the large body of scholarship concerned with theorizing social relations is the idea of cosmopolitanism This book unpacks the idea of cosmopolitanism through the linked knowledges of the Global South It brings into dialogue an interdisciplinary team of local and transnational scholars who examine various temporal cultural spatial and political contexts in countries as different yet connected as Malaysia Indonesia Singapore India Bangladesh Japan Korea and Vietnam The book also considers a wide range of subjects present and historical real as represented in literature and in theatre and as theorized in philosophy across these diverse contexts but always focusing on regions and places where inter Asian intermingling has taken place The conclusions arrived at are varied and considerably enrich social theorizing The book reveals a cosmopolitanism that is much more specifically Asian than the cosmopolitanism usually associated with the West demonstrates how concepts of nation local and globalization play out in practice in Asian settings and re examines concepts such as migration diaspora and the construction of identities The book has much to offer scholars engaged in history literary studies anthropology and cultural studies      Routledge Handbook of Race and Ethnicity in Asia Michael Weiner, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook of Race and Ethnicity in Asia introduces theoretical approaches to the study of race ethnicity and indigeneity in Asia beyond those commonly grounded in the Western experience The volume's twenty eight chapters consider not only the relationship between ethnic or racial minorities and the state but social relations within and between individual and transnational communities These shape not only the contours of governance but also the means by which knowledge of national identity self and other have been constructed and reconstructed over time Divided into four sections it provides holistic and comparative coverage of South South East and East Asia as well as Australasia and Oceania an area that extends from Pakistan in the West to Hawai i in the East Contributors to this handbook offer a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives opening a domain of scholarship wherein the relationship between phenotype and racism is less pronounced than European and North American approaches which have often privileged the so called colour stigmata leading to further exclusions of particular ethnic racial and indigenous communities This volume seeks to overcome racism and white ideologies embedded in theories of race and ethnicity in Asia proving a valuable resource to both students and scholars of comparative racial and ethnic studies international relations and human rights      Regional Minorities and Development in East and Southeast Asia Elizabeth Morrell, 2009      Negotiating the Modern Amit Ray, 2007-01-22 This book explicates long standing literary celebrations of India and Indianness by charting a cultural history of Indianness in the Anglophone world locating moments in intellectual religious and cultural history where India and Indianness are offered up as solutions to modern moral ethical and political questions in the West Beginning in the early 1800s South Asians actively seek to occupy and modify spaces created by the scholarly discourses of Orientalism the study of the East Orient via Western European epistemological frameworks Tracing the varying fortunes of Orientalist scholars from the inception of British rule this study charts the work of key Indologists in the colonial era The rhetorical constructions of East and West deployed by both colonizer and colonized as well as attempts to synthesize or transcend such constructions became crucial to conceptions of the modern Eventually Indian desire for political sovereignty together with the deeply racialized formations of imperialism produced a shift in the dialogic relationship between South Asia and Europe that had been initiated and sustained by orientalists This impetus pushed scholarly discourse about India in Europe North America and elsewhere out of what had been a direct role in politics and theology and into high Literary culture      Translational Politics in Southeast Asian Literatures Grace V. S. Chin, 2021-03-15 Highlighting the interconnections between Southeast Asia and the world through literature this book calls for a different reading approach to the literatures of Southeast Asia by using translation as the main conceptual framework in the analyses and interpretation of the texts languages and cultures of the following countries Cambodia Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Brunei Darussalam and the Philippines Through the theme of translational politics the contributors critically examine not only the linguistic properties but also the metaphoric symbolic and semiotic meanings images and representations that have been translated across societies and cultures through local and global consumption and circulation of literature new media and other cultural forms Using translation to unlock and decode multiple different languages narratives histories and worldviews emerging from Southeast Asian geo literary contexts this book builds on current scholarship and offers new approaches to the contestations of race gender and sexuality in literature which often involve the politically charged discourses of identity language and representation At the same time this book provides new perspectives and future directions in the study of Southeast Asian literatures Exploring a range of literary and cultural products including written texts performance and cinema this volume will be a key resource for students and researchers interested in translation and cultural studies comparative and world literature and Southeast Asian studies

From Orientalism To Postcolonialism Asia Europe And The Lineages Of Difference Routledge Contemporary Asia Series By Mazumdar Sucheta Published By Routledge: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
