Lucian Boia Humanitas:

Intercultural Conflict and Harmony in the Central European Borderlands Mihai I. Spăriș, 2017-05-15 This crossdisciplinary collection of essays combines qualitative and quantitative approaches to re-examine the most influential contemporary theories of intercultural relations and their application in various domains including historiography, sociology and cultural studies. A particular focus lies on Central Europe, historical Banat and Transylvania, but also on the current public policies toward ethnic and religious minorities as well as recent immigrants. It argues that much more complex approaches are needed both historically and conceptually in exploring intercultural relations. Thus, the political decision making in East Central European countries and the European Union as a whole could benefit from a well-informed historical perspective by learning from the successes and errors of their predecessors.

The Political Anthropology of Ethnic and Religious Minorities Arpad Szokolczai, Agnes Horvath, Attila Z. Papp, 2018-12-07 This book presents some arguments for why a political anthropological perspective can be particularly helpful for understanding the connected political and cultural challenges and opportunities posed by the situation of ethnic and religious minorities. The first chapter shortly introduces the major anthropological concepts used, including liminality, trickster, imitation and schismogenesis, concepts that are used together with approaches of historical sociology and genealogy, especially concerning the rise and fall of empires and their lasting impact. The conceptual framework suggested here is particularly helpful for understanding how marginal places can become liminal, appearing suddenly at the center of political attention. The introduction also shows the manner in which minority existence can problematize the depersonalizing tendencies of modern globalization. Subsequent chapters demonstrate how the described political anthropological conceptual framework can be used in certain European regions and in the case of certain ethnic and religious minority and each illustrates that instead of charismatic leaders, trickster politicians are emerging and increasingly dominate through the public sphere, the space of modern politics emptied of real presence. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics.

The Cultural Core of Media Systems Peter Gross, 2023-06-05 This book offers an alternative perspective to the reigning socio-political and economic approaches to evaluating media systems and why and how they function. Peter Gross outlines a cultural model, a kaleidoscopic cultural prism, for assessing the nature and functioning of these systems. By testing this model in one Eastern European country, Romania, Gross contributes to existing scholarship on media theory, media and transformation. East and Central European media, Romanian media and East and Central European transformations in general. Awareness of the inherent negatives in the cultural bricolage accumulated over the centuries while Romanians lived under physical administrative and ideological dominance of various empires is increasingly sown among the new generations. This reality makes a culture-driven understanding of Romania's media system even more urgent and meaningful for comprehending the evolving transformation. Scholars of communication, media studies and Eastern European studies will find this book of particular interest Literary Translation and the Idea of a Minor Romania Sean Cotter, 2014 Examines translations by canonical Romanian writers Lucian Blaga Constantin Noica and Emil Cioran arguing that their works reveal a new minor mode of national identity Inside the Mechanisms of Romanian Modernization Florin Grancea, 2006-09-05 This book analyzes in the relation with the Romanian modernity the transformations of the Romanian public sphere political system and journalism from the beginning of the 19th Century up to 2005 The argumentation starts from the idea that the Romanian Enlightenment never had the chance to reach its purpose the creation of the individual as a human category As a consequence of this historical fact the Romanian modernity was not explored in all its dimensions and was not congruent with its western model of development Only after late 90 s signs for a surpassing historical backwardness were seen in Romania and only after the integration into EU become sure From this perspective this book looks onto the change in the modernization engine of Romania in late 90 s This change is happening as a transgression from a three steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is central to a two steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is minimal Because the three steps modernization model fits the idea of an acclamatory public sphere while the two steps modernization engine fits the concept of civil public sphere this book proves that the Romanian democracy is evolving from its totalitarian background to become a participative democracy The only question unanswered yet is if the elite and the mass media are willing to let Romania and its citizens to breakup the ties with the totalitarian past Old Cities, Former Capitals and the Nation-State Building in Southeastern Europe: Regional and National Identities Cristian Ploscaru, Cosmin Mihut, Mihai-Bogdan Atanasiu, 2025-11-05 Contents Regionalism Analytical Approaches Moving Cities Urban Culture and Community Identity in Change Historical Identity and Culture in National Context Dramatic Past Uncertain Future Building Identities in Wartime Rethinking the Space for Religion Catharina Raudvere, Krzysztof Stala, Trine Stauning Willert, 2015-01-01 A broad discussion about how history and religion contribute to identity politics in contemporary Europe this book provides case studies exemplifying how public intellectuals and academics have taken an active part in the construction of recent and traditional pasts Instead of repeating the simplistic explanation as a return of religion this volume focuses on public platforms and agents and their use of religion as a political and cultural argument Filled with previously unpublished data gathered from texts interviews field observations artifacts and material culture this record challenges stereotypical images of East and Southeast Europe Marginal Spaces and Cultures of Dissent in Socialist Romania's Black Sea Ruxandra-Iuliana Canache, 2023-09-05 This book analyzes two Romanian villages 2 Mai and Vama Veche as spaces of relative freedom during the last decades of socialist rule This microhistorical study refutes simplistic views of the communist past which focus on political figures and events and instead explores ordinary people and everyday life Taking a multidisciplinary approach it considers a broad range of sources including official Communist Party documents secret police files personal memoirs oral history interviews ethnographic films songs and artistic performances This book intertwines three narrative threads that of the visitors mainly members of the Romanian intelligentsia young people and hippies that of the local inhabitants and that of authority local and central state agents actively engaged in surveillance and supervision In doing so it interrogates the spectrum of consent dissent and resistance collaboration hitherto neglected in scholarship

Capitalism in Chaos Máté Rigó, 2022-08-15 Capitalism in Chaos explores an often overlooked consequence and paradox of the First World War the prosperity of business elites and bankers in service of the war effort during the destruction of capital and wealth by belligerent armies This study of business life amid war and massive geopolitical changes follows industrialists and policymakers in Central Europe as the region became crucially important for German and subsequently French plans of economic and geopolitical expansion in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Based on extensive research in sixteen archives five languages and four states M t Rig demonstrates that wartime destruction and the birth of war millionaires were two sides of the same coin Despite the recent centenaries of the Great War and the Versailles peace treaties knowledge of the overall impact of war and border changes on business life remains sporadic based on scant statistics and misleading national foci Consequently most histories remain wedded to the viewpoint of national governments and commercial connections across national borders Capitalism in Chaos changes the static historical perspective by presenting Europe s East as the economic engine of the continent Rig accomplishes this paradigm shift by focusing on both supranational regions including East Central and Western Europe as well as the eastern and western peripheries of Central Europe Alsace Lorraine and Transylvania from the 1870s until the 1920s As a result Capitalism in Chaos offers a concrete lively history of economics during major world crises with a contemporary consciousness toward inequality and disparity during a time of collapse

Women Archaeologists under Communism, 1917-1989 Florin Curta, Iurie Stamati, 2021-11-27 This book explores the uncharted territory of the history of archaeology under Communism through the biographies of five women archaeologists from the Soviet Union Bulgaria Romania Hungary and Poland They were working in medieval archaeology with a specific focus on the early Slavs The choice of specialists in medieval archaeology has much to do with the fact that in the five East European countries considered in this book medieval archaeology began to develop into a serious discipline less than a century ago The main catalyst for the sudden rise of medieval archaeology was a dramatic shift in emphasis from traditional political and constitutional to social and economic history In five countries the rise of medieval archaeology thus coincides in time and was ultimately caused by the imposition of Communist regimes The five women were therefore true pioneers in their field and respective countries
