Zulu Warriors John Laband, 2014-05-27 The Anglo Zulu War the most famous of Britain's late nineteenth century campaigns of colonial conquest was not fought in isolation Along with the two Anglo Pedi wars the Ninth Cape Frontier War and the Northern Border War it was one in a brutal series of interconnected and overlapping wars which the British waged between 1877-1879 to crush and disarm the remaining independent black states of South Africa Fusing the widely differing African and European perspectives on events the author probes the fateful decisions taken by statesmen and military commanders analyses military operations and their destructive impact on combatants and civilians alike and explores why so many Africans chose to fight as auxiliaries and levies alongside the British instead of against them Jacket African

Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa

Chris Saunders, Helder Adegas Fonseca, Lena Dallywater, 2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings

The Commonwealth, South Africa and Apartheid Stuart

Mole, 2023-05-31 This book explores the role of the modern Commonwealth in the international campaign against apartheid in South Africa Spanning the period of South Africa's apartheid state from its foundation in 1948 until its ending in April 1994 the author demonstrates that after the 1960 Sharpeville massacre and South Africa's subsequent exclusion from the Commonwealth the organisation was able to become both pathfinder and interlocutor on the road to South Africa's freedom

As well as South Africa's ejection from the Commonwealth apartheid's increasing isolation was sustained by the Commonwealth's pioneering work in boycotting apartheid sport as well as campaigning to stop arms sales. It also played an important role in internationalising economic and financial sanctions credited by some as the final nail in apartheid's coffin and was able to make an important and distinctive contribution to the transition to democracy. At the same time critical debates within the Commonwealth about racial and political equality transformed the association from a docile post-imperial organisation led by the UK and in its own interests to a modern multiracial North-South forum for reconciling global difference and overcoming the legacies of colonialism. This comprehensive and authoritative account of the Commonwealth's engagement with apartheid South Africa is intended for all those who study and research the modern Commonwealth its structure and influence and for those with a general interest in contemporary post-war history. Lourenço Da Silva

Mendonça and the Black Atlantic Abolitionist Movement in the Seventeenth Century José Lingna Nafafé, 2022-08-10

This groundbreaking study tells the story of the highly organised international legal court case for the abolition of slavery spearheaded by Prince Lourenço da Silva Mendonça in the seventeenth century. The case presented before the Vatican called for the freedom of all enslaved people and other oppressed groups. This included New Christians, Jews converted to Christianity and Indigenous Americans in the Atlantic World and Black Christians from confraternities in Angola, Brazil, Portugal and Spain. Abolition debate is generally believed to have been dominated by white Europeans in the eighteenth century. By centring African agency, Jos Lingna Nafaf offers a new perspective on the abolition movement showing for the first time how the legal debate was begun not by Europeans but by Africans. In the first book of its kind, Lingna Nafaf underscores the exceptionally complex nature of the African liberation struggle and demystifies the common knowledge and accepted wisdom surrounding African slavery. Eastern and Southern Africa Debby Potts, T.A.S. Bowyer-Bower, 2016-02-04

A unique and comprehensive introduction to contemporary development issues in East and Southern Africa and represents a significant departure from the often descriptive approach adopted by existing regional and development texts on African regions. Each contribution is carefully chosen to highlight the theoretical basis to development issues and the practical problems of implementing development plans in this vital subregion. Overall, this produces comprehensive and balanced coverage of historical economic, political and social issues. The twin issues of globalisation and modernisation give the book a clear focus.
