Ma Islamiat Notes In Urdu

Syed Abdul Manan, Anas Hajar

Ma Islamiat Notes In Urdu :

Agency in Multilingual Education Policy and Planning in Asia Syed Abdul Manan, Anas Hajar, 2025-10-13 Manan and Hajar invite experts and seasoned researchers from Asian contexts to explore the nuanced dynamics of language policy and educational practices in Asia underscoring the importance of understanding local agency at a micro level The chapters engage in the critical exploration of the tensions between structure and agency and spotlight the institutional constraints these micro level actors face in the enactment of multilingual education policy and planning The contributors chapters provide case study examples of the response of local actors towards policies at the micro level when creating potential spaces for multilingual pedagogies and possible affirmation of multilingual identities It also provides an analysis of how and why micro level actors engage in exercise of their agency and what motives drive them towards such responses The volume serves as a challenge to and hopes to change the normative assumptions pervasive postcolonial hierarchies and hierarchical multilingualism in favour of more egalitarian and inclusive multilingual policies and practices both within and outside the classroom More specifically the volume shares significant developments occurring around the role of agency in negotiating the prevailing Anglophonic and Anglonormative trends and practices This book will be of value to researchers and postgraduate students working in the fields of language policy and planning multilingualism and language education

Journal of the Pakistan Historical Society ,1953 Distance Education for Teacher Training Hilary Perraton, 2002-03-11 Distance education combining the use of correspondence texts broadcasting and limited opportunities for face to face study has been used in at least a hundred teacher training programmes over the last 25 years Distance Education for Teacher Training is the first comparative review of the use of distance education and open learning for the training and upgrading of teachers The book contains case studies using a broadly common format both to describe and analyse distance teacher training programmes in eleven countries across five continents The case studies describe the methods used to examine how far the craft of teaching can be studied at a distance Using a standardised microeconomic framework they provide unique data on the comparative costs of training teachers by distance and conventional methods The authors then draw general conclusions about the advantages and drawbacks of using distance education or open learning about the conditions for success and about comparative effects and costs Distance Education for Teacher Training will be of value to all concerned with teacher education whether in developing or industrialised countries and to those working in and planning for distance education and open learning Tafsir-ul-Qur'an ,1991
