CSR and Management Accounting Challenges in a Time of Global Crises Oncioiu, Ionica, 2021-06-25 Modern companies are subject to increasing pressures to conduct their business in an environmentally responsible manner due to social and environmental problems Management of sustainable performance is one of the phenomena faced by the current business environment and in particular management corporations The focus of management on profitability remains the main objective of any company but it must also take into account the sustainability of social economic and environmental aspects Under these circumstances managerial decisions need to be adjusted and strongly substantiated considering the information required by internal and external stakeholders including financial reporting The information requirements of customers and other stakeholders are steadily increasing and some companies face certain problems in implementing the concept of sustainability and environmental reporting

CSR and Management Accounting Challenges in a Time of Global Crises is a comprehensive reference source that explores various theoretical and practical approaches of management accounting and its impact in the 21st century and investigates new accounting and financial approaches where economic and social aspects become mutually supportive to enhance their impact on community development Covering topics such as CSR reporting sustainability and greenwashing this book is an essential resource for academicians specialty organizations chief financial officers CFOs financial controllers business analysts financial planning and analysis FP A analysts budgeting managers students researchers and business environment managers and specialists Air Traffic Management Marina Efthymiou, 2023-05-10

This book addresses each of the Air Navigation Services five broad categories of services provided to air traffic during all phases of operation air traffic management ATM communication navigation and surveillance services CNS meteorological services for air navigation MET aeronautical information services AIS and search and rescue SAR This book is designed for working professionals in Air Transport Management but also undergraduate and postgraduate students studying air transport management and aeronautical engineering It will also be very helpful for the training of air traffic control officers ATCOs The book does not require any prior specialist knowledge as it is an introduction to air navigation service provider ANSP business There is very little literature available that gives a detailed appreciation of the complexities potential risks and issues associated with the provision of air navigation services The role of this book is to fill this significant gap with a comprehensive in depth study of the management principles related to ANSPs This is particularly timely given recent ATC developments in Europe USA and New Zealand Airlines and airports rely on the ANSPs for the management of air traffic Hence air navigation services ANS provision is considered as a core element for air transportation Journal of Financial Education ,2007

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF FORECASTING JAN G. DE GOOIJER, 2002 Managerial Economics Mark Hirschey, 2006 The Eleventh Edition of this market leading text continues its tradition of providing a solid foundation of economic understanding for use in managerial decision making It offers a practical treatment of economic theory and analysis in an intuitive calculus based format Its focus is on presenting those aspects of economic theory and analysis that are most relevant to students of business administration and a wide variety of examples and simple numerical problems are used to illustrate the application of managerial economics to a vast assortment of practical situations The nature of the decision process and the role that economic analysis plays in that process are emphasized throughout This major revision is designed to maximize accessibility for a student audience with little or no background in economics and no previous training in calculus
