Agriculture And Rural Development Strategy In Myanmar:

The Myanmar Economy Konosuke Odaka, 2015-11-11 With motivated human resources and a rich natural bounty Myanmar is expected to take off with sustained growth and eventually attain a unique welfare state On the basis of the authors field surveys and innumerable dialogues with public officials private professionals scholars and others in addition to intensive desk studies since around 2000 the present volume lays out the essential ingredients for drawing a roadmap to realise the above mentioned objective That goal is specifically financial development adequate social capital indigenous modern manufactures and closer international tie ups among others but above all sound agrarian development An effort has been made to place the required ingredients in their historical contexts as historical experiences constitute an important sociopolitical condition in which development takes place Myanmar nationals and readers concerned with the country s economic progress are encouraged to give serious sustained thought to coming up with a socially supportable roadmap for the country s development path The present volume provides valuable hints for that purpose North Korea and Myanmar Andray Abrahamian, 2018-02-20 North Korea and Myanmar Burma are Asia s most mysterious tragic stories For decades they were infamous as the region s most militarized and repressed societies self isolated and under sanctions by the international community while from Singapore to Japan the rest of Asia saw historic wealth creation and growing middle class security For Burma the threat was internal insurgent factions clashed with the government and each other For North Korea it was external a hostile superpower the United States and a far more successful rival state South Korea occupying half of the Korean peninsula Over time Myanmar defeated its enemies giving it space to explore a form of democratization and openness that has led to reintegration into international society Meanwhile North Korea s regime believes its nuclear arsenal the primary reason for their pariah status is vital to survival Myanmar's agrifood system: Historical development, recent shocks, future opportunities Boughton, Duncan, Belton, Ben, Lambrecht, Isabel B., Masias, Ian, Minten, Bart, 2024-10-16 Myanmar has endured multiple crises in recent years including COVID 19 global price instability the 2021 coup and widespread conflict that have disrupted and even reversed a decade of economic development Household welfare has declined severely with more than 3 million people displaced and many more affected by high food price inflation and worsening diets Yet Myanmar s agrifood production and exports have proved surprisingly resilient Myanmar s Agrifood System Historical Development Recent Shocks Future Opportunities provides critical analyses and insights into the agrifood system s evolution current state and future potential This work fills an important knowledge gap for one of Southeast Asia s major agricultural economies one largely closed to empirical research for many years It is the culmination of a decade of rigorous empirical research on Myanmar s agrifood system including through the recent crises Written by IFPRI researchers and colleagues from Michigan State University the book s insights can serve as a to guide immediate humanitarian assistance and inform future growth strategies once a sustainable resolution to the current crisis is found that ensures lasting peace and good governance Development Centre Studies Towards Greener and More Inclusive Societies in Southeast Asia

 OECD,2024-03-11 Understanding the effects of both climate change and green growth policies on jobs and people is thus essential for making the transition in Southeast Asia an inclusive one The study explores these issues with emphasis on the potential effects on labour of an energy transition in Indonesia and of a transition in the region s agricultural sector illustrated by a simulated conversion from conventional to organic rice farming Based on 0 rating(s) Title Revitalized agriculture for balanced growth and resilient livelihoods Center for Economic and Social Development (CESD),International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI),Michigan State University,2016-09-20 The purpose of this report is to provide national and state level policymakers private sector investors civil society and donors with an analysis of the rural economy of Mon State and pathways to improved prosperity for its population The analysis is based on a representative survey of rural households which make up 73 percent of Mon State s 2 million residents and extensive interviews with farmers traders processors local leaders and government officials Whereas some parts of the Mon State economy are quite dynamic such as construction others are stagnant and far from reaching their full potential Furthermore the dynamic sectors are heavily dependent on remittances from migrants to neighboring countries The current pattern of donor investment is heavily focused on necessary infrastructure and energy investments but with only very limited support to productive sectors especially agriculture and fisheries Major investments in education both formal and vocational training are also necessary to support the growth of a modern economy The analysis in this report identifies options for more balanced growth leading to a vibrant economy in which returning migrants can invest and find employment OECD Investment Policy Reviews: Myanmar 2020
 OECD,2020-11-24 Only six years sets this second OECD Investment Policy Reviews Myanmar apart from the first review published in 2014 but much progress has occurred in investment policies and related areas in Myanmar in the interim Nonetheless the reform momentum needs to be sustained and deepened for the benefits of recent investment climate reforms to be shared widely and for growth to be environmentally sustainable ultimately contributing toward the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs 2019 Global food policy report International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI),2019-03-27 IFPRI s flagship report reviews the major food policy issues developments and decisions of 2018 and considers challenges and opportunities for 2019 This year s Global Food Policy Report highlights the urgency of rural revitalization to address a growing crisis in rural areas Rural people around the world continue to struggle with food insecurity persistent poverty and inequality and environmental degradation Policies institutions and investments that take advantage of new opportunities and technologies increase access to basic services create more and better rural jobs foster gender equality and restore the environment can make rural areas vibrant and healthy places to live and work Drawing on recent findings IFPRI researchers and other distinguished food policy experts consider critical aspects of rural revitalization
