matter Examining novels by authors such as Chinua Achebe Jhumpa Lahiri Nnedi Okorafor and Arundhati Roy the book considers how animist beliefs shape the aesthetic representation of trauma in postcolonial literature paying special attention to complex metaphor and narrative structure These literary texts challenge the conventional wisdom that working through trauma involves achieving physical and psychic integrity in a stable environment Instead a type of provisional but substantive healing emerges in an animist relationship between human trauma victims and nonhuman matter In this context animism becomes a pivotal way to reframe the process of working through trauma Offering a rich framework for analyzing trauma in postcolonial literature this book will be of interest to scholars of postcolonial literature Nigerian literature and South Asian literature
