Macro-financial Stability Policy In A Globalised World: Lessons From International Experience - Selected Papers From The Asian Monetary Policy Forum 2021 Special Edition And Mas-bis Conference Edward S Robinson, Claudio Borio, Hyun Song Shin, 2022-12-28 Since at least the Great Financial Crisis authorities around the world have increasingly relied on macroprudential policy to help secure financial stability and complement monetary policy as an integral element of a broader macro financial stability framework In today s interconnected global financial system policy actions taken by the major advanced economies can have spillovers on the rest of the world through their impact on capital flows and exchange rates potentially generating vulnerabilities across borders Conversely in emerging market economies macroprudential policy as well as foreign exchange intervention and or capital flow management policy can help mitigate the corresponding impact This can in turn generate spillbacks on advanced economies spillbacks that have become more sizeable as the emerging market economies heft in the world has grown Yet little is known about these interactions The contents of this book are based on a conference held on 26 28 May 2021 and jointly hosted by the Monetary Authority of Singapore MAS and the Bank for International Settlements BIS It aims to contribute to existing literature on macro financial policymaking by providing an overall conceptual framework and documenting the latest global trends and country experiences In particular it highlights the role of international spillovers and spillbacks paying particular attention to emerging market economies This book is essential reading for academics graduate students and economic professionals It can also serve as a handbook for policymakers at central banks regulatory authorities and other government agencies tasked with designing and implementing macroprudential or more generally

macro financial stability policies The book will also be of interest to researchers at international organisations Income aspirations, migration, and investments on and off the farm: Evidence from rural Tajikistan Bloem, Jeffrey R., Lambrecht, Isabel, 2023-12-08 In places with few casual or salaried employment opportunities investments in farm or non farm assets may offer the main pathway to increased incomes locally whereas others may seek alternative investment options elsewhere as migrants What factors then explain these investment choices One theory suggests that aspirations that are ahead but not too far ahead of current levels provide the best incentive for promoting investment If this theory holds then estimates of the relationship between the aspirations gap and investment choices should take the form of a non monotonic inverted U shape We test for such a relationship between the income aspirations gap and investments in migration farm assets and non farm assets using data from a household survey in rural Tajikistan We find evidence of an inverted U shaped relationship between the income aspirations gap and measures of migration with the strongest relationship found with international migration Strikingly we do not observe any association between the income aspirations gap and measures of investment in farm or non farm assets Exploring heterogeneity we find that these results can vary by household poverty status and by the respondent's gender Investigating a possible mechanism we find that the relationship between the income aspirations gap and migration seems to be driven by remittances which outweigh migration costs and increase household income
