Al Jazeera And Al Jazeera English A Comparative:

Al Jazeera and the Global Media Landscape Tine Ustad Figenschou, 2013-10-15 This book analyzes how and why Al Jazeera English AJE became the channel of choice to understand the massive protests across the Arab world 2011 Aiming to explain the Al Jazeera moment it tracks the channel's bumpy road towards international recognition in a longitudinal in depth analysis of the channel's editorial profile and strategies Studying AJE from its launch in mid November 2006 to the Arab Spring it explains and problematizes the channel's ambitious editorial agenda and strategies examines the internal conflicts practical challenges and minor breakthroughs in its formative years The Al Jazeera phenomenon has received massive attention but it remains under researched The growth of transnational satellite television has transformed the global media landscape into a complex web of multi vocal multimedia and multi directional flows Based on a combination of policy production and content analysis of comprehensive empirical data the book offers an innovative perspective on the theorization of global news contra flows By problematizing the distinctive characteristics of AJE it examines the strategic motivation behind the channel and the ways in which its production processes and news profile are meant to be different from its Anglo American competitors These questions underscore a central nexus of the book the changing relationship between transnational satellite news and power

Al Jazeera in the Gulf and in the World Haydar Badawi Sadig, 2019-05-15 This book examines the deeper meaning of the advent of the Al Jazeera Media Network with regard to ongoing debates on global communication ethics not only in the global public sphere but also in terms of its influence on new non Western approaches to media ethics Rather than simply calling for international perspectives on media ethic is a unique and significant addition to the literature on the topic The book investigates whether Al Jazeera's vision mission and operations are actually inspired by the New World Information Order debates over contra flow and hegemony Further the book identifies ways of developing new non Western approaches to global communication ethics as it suggests injecting more cosmopolitanism in global news reporting and commentary

Reporting at the Southern Borders Giovanna Dell'Orto, Vicki L. Birchfield, 2013-10-15 Undocumented immigration across the Mediterranean and the US Mexican border is one of the most contested transatlantic public and political issues raising fundamental questions about national identity security and multiculturalism all in the glare of news media themselves undergoing dramatic transformations This interdisciplinary international volume fills a major gap in political science and communication literature on the role of news media in public debates over immigration by providing unique insider's perspectives on journalistic practices and bringing them into dialogue with scholars and immigrant rights practitioners After providing original comparative research by established and emerging international affairs and media scholars as well as grounded reflections by UN and IOM practitioners the book presents candid in depth assessments by nine leading European and North American journalists covering immigration from the frontlines ranging from the Guardian's Southern Europe editor to the immigration reporter for the Arizona Republic Their comparative reflections on the professional institutional and technological constraints shaping news stories offer unprecedented insight into the challenges and opportunities for 21st century journalism to affect public discourse and policymaking about issues critical to the future of the transatlantic space making the book relevant across a wide range of scholarship on the media's impact on public affairs

Political Islam and Global Media Noha Mellor, Khalil Rinnawi, 2016-06-10 The development of new and social networking sites as well as the growth of transnational Arab television has triggered a debate about the rise in transnational political and religious identification as individuals and groups negotiate this new triad of media religion and culture This book examines the implications of new media on the rise of political Islam and on Islamic religious identity in the Arab Middle East and North Africa as well as among Muslim Arab Diasporas Undoubtedly the process of globalization especially in the field of media and ICTs challenges the cultural and religious systems particularly in terms of identity formation Across the world Arab Muslims have embraced new media not only as a source of information but also as a source of guidance and fatwas thereby transforming Muslim practices and rituals This volume brings together chapters from a range of specialists working in the field presenting a variety of case studies on new media identity formation and political Islam in Muslim communities both within and beyond the MENA region Offering new insight into the influence of media exposure on national political and cultural boundaries of the Islamic identity this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics specifically political Islam and political communication

Al-Jazeera as a tool for Qatari foreign policy? Sukayna El-Zayat, 2013-01-07 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject Communications Media and Politics Politic Communications grade 7.5 out of 10 Maastricht University European Studies language English abstract Since its first appearance the Arabic network of Al Jazeera has been the target of many different critics Some say the channel supports terrorism others praise it as the first free and independent Arab media Al Jazeera has been funded by Qatar since its beginning and it is now led by a member of the Qatari royal family the question which then arises is whether Al Jazeera is as independent as it claims This paper analyses the relationship between Qatar and Al Jazeera Therefore firstly Qatar's foreign affairs and interests are presented and then a comparative analysis of Al Jazeera's coverage of the Arab spring follows My thesis states that Al Jazeera functions as an instrument for Qatari foreign policy or is at least heavily influenced by it and is consequently not able to present balanced reporting independently Using the examples of Libya and Bahrain this essay shows that the tendencies of Al Jazeera's coverage match the respective tone of Qatar's foreign policy Additionally it looks more deeply at the replacement of Wadah Khanfar ex director of Al Jazeera who has been replaced by a member of the Qatari royal family
