by an inner voice at the age of eighteen he became a campaigner for land reform working to turn Gandhi's vision of a renewed India into reality. Fired by the example of Bertrand Russell he undertook a peace pilgrimage walking from India to America without any money through mountains, deserts, storms and snow. It was an adventure during which he was thrown into jail in France, faced a loaded gun in America and delivered packets of peace tea to the leaders of the four nuclear powers. He settled in England taking on the editorship of Resurgence magazine and becoming the guiding light behind a number of ecological, spiritual and educational ventures including Schumacher College. This edition of Satish Kumar's inspirational autobiography commemorates the foundation of Schumacher College with new chapters about the college and bringing Satish's story up to date. Following Indian tradition in his fiftieth year he undertook another pilgrimage again without any money he walked to the holy places of Britain: Glastonbury, Lindisfarne and Iona.
