English Language Proficiency Testing in Asia Lily I-Wen Su, Cyril J. Weir, Jessica R. W. Wu, 2019-11-19 As the demand for English language education grows in Asia there has been a parallel growth in the development and implementation of standardized tests at the local level Offering much needed context on locally produced tests in Asia contributors examine emerging models for English language assessment and the impact these large scale tests have on the teaching and learning of English Chapters address the following well known and developing high stakes tests in different regions across Asia the GEPT the TEPS the VSTEP the CET the EIKEN and TEAP and the ELPA Brought together by world renowned testing assessment scholar Cyril Weir and the Language Training and Testing Center LTTC one of Asia's leading testing institutions based in Taiwan this volume is a useful reference for evaluating developing and validating local tests of English and their societal impact Comprehensive and research based chapters cover historic backgrounds sociocultural contexts test quality international standing and future considerations Ideal for graduate students researchers and scholars in language assessment TESOL TEFL and applied linguistics this book will also be of interest to language teaching professionals language test developers and graduate students in Asian studies and international education intercultural communication and intercultural studies

IELTS Abdelhamid ZOUBIR, 2013-08-13 IELTS Academic Made Easy combines a critical review of this testing system's marking rubrics and time constraints with an assortment of practical listening speaking and writing tasks It also provides detailed references to listening and reading past test papers published by Cambridge University Press

Language Curriculum Design John Macalister, I.S.P. Nation, 2019-12-23 Now in its second edition Language Curriculum Design describes the steps involved in the curriculum design process elaborates and justifies these steps and provides opportunities for practising and applying them Crystal clear and comprehensive yet concise the steps are laid out at a general level so that they can be applied in a wide range of particular circumstances Updated throughout with cutting edge research and theory the second edition contains new examples on curriculum design and development and expanded attention on environment analysis needs analysis and programme evaluation The process comes to life through plentiful examples of actual applications from the authors experience and from published research Each chapter also includes tasks that encourage readers to relate the steps to their own experience and case studies and suggestions for further reading Combining sound research theory with state of the art practice Language Curriculum Design is widely applicable for ESL EFL language education courses around the world

Handbook of Second Language Assessment Dina Tsagari, Jayanti Banerjee, 2016-03-07 Second language assessment is ubiquitous It has found its way from education into questions about access to professions and migration This volume focuses on the main debates and research advances in second language assessment in the last fifty years or so showing the influence of linguistics politics philosophy psychology sociology and psychometrics There are four parts which when taken together address the principles and practices of second language assessment while considering its impact on society Read separately each part addresses a different aspect of the field Part I deals with the conceptual foundations of second language assessment with chapters on the purposes of assessment and standards and frameworks as well as matters of scoring quality assurance and test validation Part II addresses the theory and practice of assessing different second language skills including aspects like intercultural competence and fluency Part III examines the challenges and opportunities of second language assessment in a range of contexts In addition to chapters on second language assessment on a national scale there are chapters on learning oriented assessment as well as the uses of second language assessment in the workplace and for migration Part IV examines a selection of important issues in the field that deserve attention These include the alignment of language examinations to external frameworks the increasing use of technology to both deliver and score second language tests the responsibilities associated with assessing test takers with special needs the concept of voice in second language assessment and assessment literacy for teachers and other test and score users

Case Studies in Language Curriculum Design John Macalister, I.S.P. Nation, 2013-05-13 Case studies are a powerful pedagogical tool for illuminating constructs and models in real life contexts Covering a wide range of teaching learning contexts and offering in depth analyses of ESL ELT language curriculum design issues this casebook is distinctive and unique in that each case draws on and is clearly linked to a single model presented in Nation and Macalister's Language Curriculum Design www.routledge.com 9780415806060 giving the book a high degree of coherence A short commentary by the editors after each case highlights features of note and or issues arising from it This is a versatile text designed to work as a companion to Language Curriculum Design adding meaning and depth to the model presented there by relating it to a range of applications as a stand alone text or as a resource for language teacher trainees teacher educators practicing teachers program administrators and materials writers in the field

Resources in Education, 1992 Exploratory Practice in Language Teaching Judith Hanks, 2017-01-28 This book tracks the development of Exploratory Practice since the early 1990s as an original form of practitioner research in the field of English language teaching Drawing on case studies vignettes and narratives from teachers and learners around the world as they experienced Exploratory Practice in their different contexts Hanks examines the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the Exploratory Practice framework and asks what the principles really mean in practice For language professionals considering investigating their classrooms and their teaching learning practices rigorously and thoughtfully this book breaks new ground arguing for a fresh perspective exploratory practice as research Judith Hanks is Lecturer in TESOL at the University of Leeds UK Her work bridges specialist areas in language teacher education intercultural communication TESOL and EAP
