Dante's Persons Heather Webb, 2016-05-05 Dante's Persons explores the concept of personhood as it appears in Dante's Commedia and seeks out the constituent ethical modes that the poem presents as necessary for attaining a fullness of persona The study suggests that Dante presents a vision of transhuman potentiality in which the human person is after death fully integrated into co-presence with other individuals in a network of relations based on mutual recognition and interpersonal attention The Commedia Heather Webb argues aims to depict and to actively construct a transmortal community in which the plenitude of each individual's person is realized in and through recognition of the personhood of other individuals who constitute that community whether living or dead Webb focuses on the strategies the Commedia employs to call us to collaborate in the mutual construction of persons As we engage with the dead that inhabit its pages we continue to maintain the personhood of those dead Webb investigates Dante's implicit and explicit appeals to his readers to act in relation to the characters in his otherworlds as if they were persons Moving through the various encounters of Purgatorio and Paradiso this study documents the ways in which characters are presented as persons in development or in a state of plenitude through attention to the corporeal modes of smiles gazes gestures and postures Dante's journey provides a model for the formation and maintenance of a network of personal attachments attachments that as constitutive of persona are not superseded even in the presence of the direct vision of God La Civiltà cattolica, 1889 Le strade del mistero
