

Before Reading

BEFORE READING ACTIVITIES (PAGE 92)

ACTIVITY 1 BEFORE READING

Dartmoor is a real place in England. It is easy to lose your way on this wild, wet moor, and there are dangerous marshes covered in green plants, which hide the soft earth underneath. The weather can change very suddenly, from a clear sky to a thick mist. Once, a huge hound lived there – a dog from hell, that brought a horrible death to all who saw it. Only the great detective, Sherlock Holmes, could solve the mystery of this hound.

ACTIVITY 2 BEFORE READING

Encourage students to guess, but do not tell them if their guesses are right. They will find out as they read that the answers are 1a, 1d, 2a, 2b and 3a.

While Reading

Encourage students, throughout the reading of this classic detective story, to decide what are facts, for which there is proof that cannot be argued about, and what is supposition, which might or might not turn out to be true.

CHAPTERS 1 TO 4 WHILE READING

- 1 A guess. The official report said there was 'no question of murder', but there are a number of strange facts which make murder a possibility.
- 2 A fact. The change in his footprints – from the whole foot to the toe – is the proof for this.
- 3 A fact, proved by his cigar ash on the ground by the gate.
- 4 A guess. We don't know yet if this is true or not.
- 5 A fact. Dr Mortimer saw its footprints on the path.
- 6 A fact. He was known to have a weak heart, and there were no marks on the body to suggest murder.
- 7 A guess. It is quite possible that it was fear that caused Sir Henry to run, and the footprints prove that there was a dog there, but the two things are not necessarily connected.

CHAPTERS 5 TO 8 WHILE READING

- 1 One of his new shoes was stolen; he received a warning letter from an unknown person; he was followed by a man with a large black beard; a second, old shoe was stolen; and the new shoe re-appeared in his hotel room.

- 2 Sir Charles Baskerville, who had died at Baskerville Hall three months before, and Roger Baskerville, a criminal, who had gone to South America and died of a fever.
- 3 He was a dangerous criminal, a murderer, who had escaped from prison and was somewhere on the moor.
- 4 Because Barrymore had said that it wasn't his wife crying in the night, but Dr Watson could see from Mrs Barrymore's face that she had been crying.
- 5 Because the boy from Grimpen post office had given the telegram to Mrs Barrymore, and not to Barrymore himself. Mrs Barrymore said that her husband was on the roof, but perhaps she was lying and in fact Barrymore was in London, following Sir Henry.
- 6 Dr Watson heard a strange, low cry coming over the moor; and Miss Stapleton, thinking Dr Watson was Sir Henry, warned him that his life was in danger on the moor and that he should return to London immediately.

BEFORE READING CHAPTER 9

Encourage students to discuss the evidence and clues so far, but do not confirm if their guesses are correct. Reasons for agreeing or disagreeing might be these:

- 1 Dr Watson has heard a cry which might be that of a hound.
- 2 It is more probable that a person wants to kill Sir Henry; but a hound – if there is a hound – might have a part to play in this.
- 3 We know that Barrymore is hiding something because he lied about his wife's crying, but that might not have anything to do with Sir Henry.
- 4 We don't know enough about them yet. Stapleton seems to be just a friendly neighbour, but why does Miss Stapleton send a warning to Sir Henry, and lie to her brother?

CHAPTERS 9 TO 11 WHILE READING

- 1 Sir Henry had fallen in love with Miss Stapleton.
- 2 Selden was Mrs Barrymore's brother, and Barrymore had been leaving food and clothes for him on the moor. Selden was planning to catch a boat for South America in a few days' time.
- 3 On the night he died, Sir Charles was waiting for a woman, Mrs Laura Lyons, who had written to him, asking him to meet her at ten o'clock.
- 4 According to Selden, he looked like a gentleman, and was living in an old stone hut on the moor. A boy brought him all the food and things he needed.
