Galatians Lesson 3 Clear Theology:

Covenant Theology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2004-11-03 In Covenant Theology author Jeong Koo Jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology. He explores the debate between John Murray and Meredith G. Kline, placing their ideas in the larger context of Biblical studies that have had a direct influence on Reformed theology and evangelicalism. Although the theologies of Murray and Kline contain significant differences, they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace. In addition, they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel, giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works. Jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for a better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith, grace, and atonement.

The Lectionary Commentary: Theological Exegesis for Sunday's Texts, The Second Readings: Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-09-09 Preaching pastors, ministers, and priests know how quickly Sundays come and go. The Lectionary Commentary will not slow the pace of the weekly calendar, but it will help assure that sermon preparation begins with a solid engagement with Scripture. Designed to jump start the difficult task of sermon preparation, this indispensable three-volume work gathers exegetical essays on biblical texts from the Revised Common Lectionary. Covering every Sunday of the three-year liturgical cycle as well as Christmas Day, Epiphany, and Ascension Day, the readings are arranged in canonical order so as to be of use to all preachers. Seventy-eight pastors, priests, and teachers from a variety of Christian traditions have contributed their insights to The Lectionary Commentary. Designed to answer the question, "What does the preacher need to know about this text in order to preach a faithful sermon from it?" each of their essays closely considers its specific biblical text, all the while remaining alert to the contemporary context in which the sermon will be spoken and heard. The result is an invaluable resource that will aid in the difficult task of facilitating a meaningful encounter between Holy Scripture and our modern world. This volume, The Second Readings: Acts and the Epistles, provides exegetical commentary on the lectionary readings for the final selections from Acts and for all of the New Testament Epistles from Romans to Revelation. Also unique to this volume is an excellent essay by Colin E. Gunton on preaching from the Letters. Consulting Editors: Richard A. Burridge, Thomas W. Gillespie, Colin E. Gunton, Robert W. Jenson, James F. Kay, Hughes Oliphant Old, Fleming Rutledge, Marguerite Shuster.

Theological Issues in the Letters of Paul J. Louis Martyn, 2005-12-01 The fruit of decades of research, the picture of Paul that Martyn paints in this major work is arresting, both horrifying and thankful to find in the crucifixion of God's Christ the death of the old cosmos and the birth of the new one. Paul was able to pre-empt the Homiletical Theology in Action David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-11-17 Homiletics is taking a theological turn. But what does the preaching task look like if we think of it not so much as a mastery of technique but an exercise in theological method? Homiletical Theology in Action: The Unfinished Theological Task of Preaching tries to envision the work of homiletics as theological in root and branch. By placing theological questions at the center of the process, the authors, some of the leading lights of the field of homiletics, try to show how their work as preachers and homiletics is a thoroughgoing theological activity By beginning with troublesome texts and problematic doctrines they seek to show how preachers and homiletics engage in theology not as consumers but as producers and in the thick of the kinds of questions that preachers have to ask Practitioners and theological educators alike will catch a glimpse of how they too are residential theologians in their own preaching praxis

Life in Transit: Theological and Ethical Contributions on Migration Manitza Kotzé, Riaan Rheeder, 2020-12-31

Migration is an issue that is under discussion worldwide and affects South Africa the United States of America and Germany in a distinctive way This book reflects academically on this significant and topical subject of migration from the often neglected perspective of the fields of theology and Christian ethics While the majority of contributions are from the South African context there are also chapters reflecting on the topic from the other two aforementioned contexts While numerous publications have recently appeared on the subject reflection from theology and Christian ethics are often lacking As such this scholarly publication wants to add ethical value to the local and global conversations on the theme from a theological perspective The book reflects on migration from the perspectives originated in the disciplines of biblical studies the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament systematic theology ecumenical studies Christian ethics practical theology and missiology It presents new and innovative inquiries primarily from a qualitative methodological viewpoint The book unveils new themes for deliberation and provides novel interpretations and insights into existing research Eschatology in Galatians Yon-Gyong

Kwon, 2004 Focusing on Paul's own statement about the Galatian crisis Yon Kwon demonstrates that the letter is about Paul's pastoral engagement with the backsliding Galatians rather than his theological altercation with his opponents Paul deals with the crisis in Galatia by reminding the Galatians of the implications of their present deviation for their future the not yet instead of affirming the blessings already realized in Christ by keeping in step with the Spirit the already Scribes,

Theology, and Apologetics Alan Mugridge, 2024-12-16 This book is a companion volume to Scribes Motives and Manuscripts In this volume Alan Mugridge provides an assessment of two major studies which claim that scribes of New Testament manuscripts changed the text in their copies from what they found in those they were using as models either to further their own theological convictions and hinder opposing views from finding support in those manuscripts or to respond to criticism of Christ and Christians in wider society In both cases the thesis examined is that copyists did not just reproduce the manuscripts given to them but changed their copies to say what they wanted them to say These theories are tested by an examination of the manuscripts with their textual variants arguing that the variant readings can usually be explained as the result of scribal carelessness or simple piety The idea that copyists deliberately changed the text in their manuscripts is found to have little basis Mugridge concludes that the text of the New Testament has not been affected nearly as much as some contend because variant readings are generally errors that can be isolated and the original text established with some confidence Journal of Theological Studies ,1916 Faith in the Son of God (Foreword by Robert W. Yarbrough) Kevin McFadden,2021-05-05 A Study of Faith in Christ in Pauline Theology Over the last fifty years the apostle Paul's theology has come under immense critical examination One important issue prompted by recent scholarship is the correct translation of the Greek phrase pistis Christou as faith in Jesus Christ Galatians 2:16 Many English speaking scholars now interpret this Greek phrase as the faithfulness of Jesus Christ This new translation is bound up with the theological argument that we are not justified by our own faith but by the faithfulness of Christ Kevin McFadden argues that faith in Christ is a proximate cause of salvation that accords with grace Not only is this treatment a helpful introduction to the pistis Christou debate but it also demonstrates the central role of faith in salvation as the church brings the gospel to the world Religious No More Mark D. Baker,2005-02-28 Too many Christians are religious their faith is more a human endeavor than a response to God's loving initiative Such religion assumes that our value comes not from God but from what we do It absorbs principles and postulates from the surrounding society leading to further misconceptions about God and our relation to our Creator All this hinders people from experiencing vibrant Christian community where they could freely love and be loved Mark Baker suggests that just as car companies test automobiles under severe conditions to uncover weaknesses North American Christians may detect fallacies in their gospel by examining how it plays out under the challenges of poverty injustice and entrenched religiosity Baker's test case is drawn from his ten year missionary experience in Tegucigalpa Honduras at churches born out of North American mission work Baker observes Honduran church life draws parallels to the dangers of religion in the North American church and mines from Galatians exciting possibilities of robust Christian grace and freedom The result is a bracing and refreshing approach to Christian community for laypersons pastors missionaries and mission strategists The New Covenant Torah in Jeremiah and the Law of Christ in Paul Femi Adeyemi,2006 Original Scholarly Monograph Straight Talk: Biblical Christianity V. Religion Roy Standifer,2013-06-12 A look at the Creator's answers regarding who we are our origin and what life is all about God has revealed Himself extensively and His revelations are straightforward but we have distorted and clouded them with religion He has paid the full price Himself for our violations of His holiness so our failure to respond in faith constitutes rejection and has the consequence of eternal separation from Him The main reason you haven't responded is that you haven't taken the time to look you have simply been going along with the crowd Shouldn't you at least take the time to look and see where that crowd is taking you After looking reject as you wish just don't reject without looking that's foolish Institutes of the Christian Religion Jean Calvin,1895 The Intertextuality of Paul's Apocalyptic Discourse Doosuk Kim,2023-05-08 This book attempts to investigate two strands in a single work apocalyptic Paul and intertextuality First what does apocalyptic Paul mean Is it synonymous to eschatology as a theological notion or the end time mystery Many seminal works have delved into the intriguing yet unorganized notion of the apocalyptic Instead of attempting to provide a universal definition of the apocalyptic the author presents his understanding of the phenomenon particularly in the cultural realm The author contends that apocalyptic is neither all about the end time event nor merely a literary genre but an interpretive lens to understand the world and social phenomena one that is shaped and developed through culture and society Accordingly the term apocalyptic Paul implies how Paul views and understands the world history and supernatural phenomena through interaction with his cultural texts and context Second the author also suggests that intertextuality is not only about comparative literature study Rather intertextuality refers to cultural semiotics a sign system to deliver the meaning of text Based on this notion of intertextuality the author interprets how Paul envisages multiple phenomena heavenly ascent resurrection afterlife the origins of sin and two ages within his cultural context

Towards Ethnic Liberation Theology in Nigeria John Arierhi Ottuh, 2019-01-22 This book provides a Biblical and theological underpinning to the concept of ethnic liberation in Nigeria It argues that the present economic political ethnic and religious structure of Nigeria represents injustice and oppression to those in the so called minority groups The situation has resulted in division unrest and mutual suspicion among people of different ethnicities and religions Bringing together liberation theology biblical hermeneutical and social studies to foster dialogue between theories and human relations in Nigeria the book presents an exegesis of Galatians 3 26 29 weaving out a theology of ethnic liberation As such it will be useful to theologians students of religious studies and philosophy and political historians as well as the general reader interested in African studies
