Media Messages Linda Holtzman, Leon Sharpe, 2014-12-18 The new edition of this widely adopted book reveals how the popular media contribute to widespread myths and misunderstanding about cultural diversity While focused on the impact of television feature film and popular music the authors reach far beyond media to explore how our understanding values and beliefs about race class gender and sexual orientation are constructed They analyze how personal histories combined with the collective history of oppression and liberation contribute to stereotypes and misinformation as well as how personal engagement with media can impact prospects for individual and social freedom Along with updated media examples expanded theories and analysis this edition explores even more deeply the coverage of race in two chapters discusses more broadly how men and boys are depicted in the media and socialized and how class issues have become even more visible since the Great Recession of the 21st century and the Occupy movements Special activities and exercises are provided in the book and an online Instructor's Manual is available to adopters

Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines, Jean McMahon Humez, 2011 51 contemporary articles are new to this edition with 14 classic pieces retained from prior editions

Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Class Joseph F. Healey, 2011-11-04 Joseph F. Healey's Race Ethnicity Gender and Class Sixth Edition builds upon the bestselling status of the prior editions praised for the author's writing style and the various effective pedagogical features that ensure students engage with core concepts in a meaningful way. With many updates and revisions, this edition once again uses sociological theory to tell the story of race and other socially constructed inequalities in the United States with consistency and clarity. Chapter-ending current debates based on the writings of prominent scholars spark classroom discussion on important issues and first-person accounts. Narrative Portraits are threaded throughout the text to bring life to a variety of topics

Provocateur Anthony J. Cortese, 2015-10-01 In the fourth edition of Provocateur, sociologist Anthony J. Cortese offers an up-to-date critical analysis of modern advertising. Though we often hear that we live in a period of unprecedented gender and racial equality, both racism and sexism persist in a most telling area: the ads with which we are inundated every day in newspapers and magazines and online. Cortese examines the ideologies surrounding gender and race by delving into the presentation of women, ethnic minorities, children, and anyone who is qualified as "other" in society. Featuring a fresh selection of nearly 400 advertisements, this edition includes new scholarship from gender, racial, and cultural studies; new chapters on gay and lesbian marketing and aggression and violence in the media; an expanded chapter on race in advertising; and more. This edition is ideal for sociology, communication, and gender and ethnic studies courses as well as for use as a go-to reference

Race in Society Margaret L. Andersen, 2021-03-12 Comprehensive yet concise, Margaret Andersen's Race in Society Second Edition is a topical introduction to race and ethnicity organized around four key questions: What does the idea of race mean and where does it come from? What are the consequences of the social construction of race? How is racial inequality structured into social institutions? What are different policies and approaches for change toward racial justice? In her accessible, student-friendly style, Andersen introduces readers to the current scholarship on race, including recent studies conducted during the COVID-19 pandemic and the protests following the murder of George Floyd. New to this edition: New coverage of the effects of COVID-19 included throughout the book, including its impact on anti-Asian racism, violent crime, racial disparities in health care, and people of color in low-wage service jobs. Expanded discussion of immigration, including US politics about immigration and national borders, displays the connection between immigration and racialization. Updated discussion of policing, police violence, and both historical and contemporary acts of vigilante justice against people of color. Updated information on residential and educational segregation, including new material on the racial achievement gap and the effects of school closures during the COVID-19 pandemic
