An Alternative Reading of the Other in The Mahabharata Seema Sinha, Kumar Sankar Bhattacharya, 2025-03-13 This book studies gender sexuality and representation in The Mahabharata Drawing on Feminist theory Queer theory and Deconstructivist theory it revisits the epic as a saga of agency empowerment and subversion and examines how it gives the gendered marginal the women and the queer a voice The authors argue that in a fluid text like The Mahabharata there is ample scope for contradiction and conformation as well as conflict and resolution which gives the marginal an opportunity to document resistance They analyse the stories of Draupadi Kunti Renuka Ulupi and Hidimba within an anti patriarchal non normative post modern theoretical framework They also examine liminal figures like Shikhandi Yuvanashwa Sudyumna and Bhangashwan who are uniquely placed in conversation involving queer space marginalization and resistance An important addition to the study of Indian epics this book will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of cultural studies subaltern studies Indian literature English literature gender studies sexuality studies queer studies women s studies exclusion studies and postcolonial studies

Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery, 2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory

Gender Trouble Judith Butler, Maxine Elliot Professor of Comparative Literature and Critical Theory Judith Butler, 2002-05-03 Since its publication in 1990 Gender Trouble has become one of the key works of contemporary feminist theory and an essential work for anyone interested in the study of gender queer theory or the politics of sexuality in culture

The Power of Feminist Theory Amy Allen, 2025-06-17 In this new second edition of The Power of

Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity Amy Allen diagnoses the inadequacies of previous feminist conceptions of power and draws on the work of a diverse group of theorists of power including Michel Foucault Judith Butler bell hooks and Hannah Arendt in order to construct a new feminist conception of power The conception of power developed in this book enables readers to theorize domination resistance and solidarity and perhaps more importantly to do so in a way that illuminates the interrelatedness of these three modalities of power The new edition of this foundational text includes substantial new material on intersectionality and power transnational feminism and power in relation to homonationalism and neo imperialism and empowerment feminism It addresses important criticisms of Foucault Arendt and Butler that have been raised by Black feminists critical philosophers of race postcolonial theorists and Marxists The Power of Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity is an essential text for students engaging with feminist analyses of power feminist theory and feminist political thought

Sexuality and Transsexuality Under the European Convention on Human Rights Damian A Gonzalez Salzberg, 2019-02-07 This book undertakes a critical analysis of international human rights law through the lens of queer theory It pursues two main aims first to make use of queer theory to illustrate that the field of human rights law is underpinned by several assumptions that determine a conception of the subject that is gendered and sexual in specific ways This gives rise to multiple legal and social consequences some of which challenge the very idea of universality of human rights Second the book proposes that human rights law can actually benefit from a better understanding of queer critiques since queer insights can help it to overcome heteronormative beliefs currently held In order to achieve these main aims the book focuses on the case law of the European Court of Human Rights the leading legal authority in the field of international human rights law The use of queer theory as the theoretical approach for these tasks serves to deconstruct several aspects of the Court's jurisprudence dealing with gender sexuality and kinship to later suggest potential paths to reconstruct such features in a queer er and more universal manner

Talking Gender and Sexuality Paul McIlvenny, 2002 This edited volume brings together scholars from psychology linguistics sociology and communication science to investigate how performative notions of gender and sexuality can be fruitfully explored with the rich set of tools that have been developed by conversation analysis and discursive psychology for analyzing everyday practical language use agency and identity in talk Contributors re examine the foundations of earlier research on gender in spoken interaction critically appraise this research to see if and how it translates successfully into the study of sexuality in talk and promote innovative alternatives that integrate the insights of recent feminist and queer theory with qualitative studies of talk and conversation Detailed empirical analyses of naturally occurring talk are used to uncover how gender and sexual identities agencies and desires are contingently accomplished in conversational practices Collectively they pose the important question of what a critical theory of talk gender and sexuality ought to look like if it is to be sensitive to a politics of conversation analysis

challenges fixed understandings of the geographical or conceptual origins of feminist performance offering a fresh and open ended guide to the moments and movements that have come to define this vital field Designed for weekly use on performance studies courses each of the book s ten chapters highlights the key works of feminist performance including performance art live art body art activism and theater These milestones are all linked to acts of rupture and political reanimation as artists broke with dominant understandings of gender art and value that were taken to be insurmountable and static Milestones are a range of accessible textbooks breaking down the need to know moments in the social cultural political and artistic development of foundational subject areas

Un/belonging Identities: Relating Narratives of Queer Trauma Mark Vicars, Jordan Gonzalez, Liam Wrigley ,Jonathan Glazzard, 2025-11-13 This Research Topic will examine the impact of trauma as it relates to the lived experiences of well being on and in LGBTQIA lives in educational domains The papers in the Topic will re present kaleidoscopic experiences of the social and cultural landscapes of the performative abjection of Queer gender and sexuality as experienced in and across cultural differences and intersectionality in school settings The papers in the collection will draw on the sociology of affect as a lens for addressing how social and emotional well being in LGBTQIA lives is a constant negotiation for young people The concept of social well being has been instrumental in bringing together a number of burgeoning disciplines across the social field sector and this Research Topic will focus on how LGBTQIA self identified young people navigate historical traumas social isolation and generate social well being in their personal lives and communities Researchers like Van der Kolk 2015 and Perry and Winfrey 2021 draw our attention to the impact of trauma on the body and the brain They highlight the damaging and often long term effect of trauma on brain development and the nervous system Attention is also given to the ways in which trauma can inhibit weaken and alter higher order thinking skills concentration and neurological pathways in the brain The body s response to trauma can also result in a constant release of hormones such as adrenalin and cortisol that can lead to a heightened nervous system To date there has been limited research on LGBTQI trauma informed narratives and their effects in Queer life worlds The Research Topic will disseminate trauma informed educative frameworks of practice strengths based resources and culturally inclusive language protocols Greig Bailey Abbott Brunzell 2021
