The Routledge Handbook of Religious Literacy, Pluralism, and Global Engagement Chris Seiple, Dennis R. Hoover, 2021-12-27 This pioneering handbook proposes an approach to pluralism that is relational principled and non relativistic going beyond banal calls for mere tolerance The growing religious diversity within societies around the world presents both challenges and opportunities A degree of competition between deeply held religious worldview perspectives is natural and inevitable yet at the same time the world urgently needs engagement and partnership across lines of difference. None of the world's most pressing problems can be solved by any single actor and as such it is not a question of if but when you partner with an individual or institution that does not think, act or believe as you do. The authors argue that religious literacy defined as a dynamic combination of competencies and skills continuously refined through real world cross cultural engagement is vital to building societies and states of neighborly solidarity and civic fairness. Through examination, reflection and case studies across multiple faith traditions and professional fields, this handbook equips scholars and students as well as policymakers and practitioners to assess, analyze and act collaboratively in a world of deep diversity. The Rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan N. Nojumi, 2016-04-30. This book describes the turbulent political history of Afghanistan from the communist upheaval of the 1970s through to the aftermath of the events of 11 September 2001. It reviews the importance of the region to external powers and explains why warfare and instability have been endemic. The author analyses in detail the birth of the Taliban and the bloody rise to power of fanatic Islamists including Osama bin Laden in the power vacuum following the withdrawal of US aid. Looking forward, Nojumi explores the ongoing quest for a third political movement in Afghanistan as an alternative to radical communists or fanatical Islamists and suggests the support that will be necessary from the international community in order for such a movement to survive.

The Presence of the Prophet in Early Modern and Contemporary Islam Rachida Chih, Stefan Reichmuth, David Jordan, 2021-11-15. This second collective volume of the series The Presence of the Prophet explores the growing importance of the figure of the Prophet Muhammad for questions of authority and power in early modern and modern times. The authors provide a rich collection of case studies on how Muhammad's material, spiritual and genealogical heritage has been claimed for the foundation of Muslim empires, revolutionary movements, the formation of modern nation states and ideologies as well as for communal mobilization and social reform. This novel comparative and diachronic study, which is unique for its wide coverage of regional cases and perspectives, reveals diverse political representations of the Prophet in an increasingly globalised struggle over the control of his image between secularization and sacralization.
