The Planning Imagination Mark Tewdwr-Jones, Nicholas Phelps, Robert Freestone, 2013-10-01 Knighted in 1998 for services to the Town and Country Planning Association and in 2003 named by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II as a Pioneer in the Life of the Nation Peter Hall is internationally renowned for the breadth and depth of his studies and writings on urban and regional planning For the last 50 years he has captured and helped to create the planning imagination Here the editors have brought together in five themes a series of critical reflections on Peter s vast and diverse contributions Those reflections are provided by colleagues familiar with his work The five parts are devoted to Peter Hall s breadth of academic work covering the history of cities and planning London spatial planning connectivity and mobility and urban globalization Finally as a sixth part the editors have asked Peter Hall himself to reflect on his career and the sources of his imagination The story this book tells is not one of a singular totally consistent theoretical and philosophical view elaborated over several decades Rather it covers a set of views that necessarily admits signs of Peter s inconsistency and imperfection over the years the insights and imperfections that inevitably accompany the exercise of a nonetheless remarkably fertile restless and inspiring planning imagination

Regional Visionaries and Metropolitan Boosters Matthew Dalbey, 2012-12-06 This book is an examination of two conflicting regional planning ideologies and the impact of this conflict on the development of two regional parkways I hypothesize that regional parkways of the 1920s and 1930s emerged out of these two visions of regional planning regionalism and metropolitanism The regional view coalesced around the work of

Benton MacKaye Lewis Mumford and the Regional Planning Association of America The metropolitan viewpoint while less definable grew out of the market oriented economic boosterism efforts associated with early twentieth century planning This view found literal and philosophical support with Thomas Adams and the Regional Plan of New York and Its Environs In an effort to flesh out the competing theories and the development of the regional parkway I discuss the history of the Skyline Drive and the proposed Green Mountain Parkway In addition to supplementing the planning history and theory literature I try to inform on issues important to the contemporary planning profession The regional visionaries viewed their regional work as a social reform effort The metropolitanists wanted to tweak the market so as to provide for a minimized congestion and economic hardship for the greatest number of citizens This vision versus reality still troubles the profession today especially in the areas of sustainable development growth management and smart growth Matthew Dalbey Jackson Mississippi March 2002 Chapter 1 Decentralization and Regional Planning Practical and Ideological Problems 1
