Merit Badge Workbook

This workbook can help you but you still need to read the merit badge pamphlet.

This Workbook can help you organize your thoughts as you prepare to meet with your merit badge counselor.

You still must satisfy your counselor that you can demonstrate each skill and have learned the information.

You should use the work space provided for each requirement to keep track of which requirements have been completed, and to make notes for discussing the item with your counselor, not for providing full and complete answers.

If a requirement says that you must take an action using words such as "discuss", "show",

"tell", "explain", "demonstrate", "identify", etc, that is what you must do.

Merit Badge Counselors may not require the use of this or any similar workbooks.

No one may add or subtract from the official requirements found in Scouts BSA Requirements (Pub. 33216 – SKU 653891).

The requirements were last issued or revised in 2016. • This workbook was updated in June 2020.

1. Explain what citizenship in the world means to you and what you think it takes to be a good world citizen.

I that citizenship in the world means that you must respect all culture and race, and embrace the humanity between us all. Also you must respect world leaders and follow orders of your own leader. To be a good world citizen it means to have compassion for everyone in the world and especially those in need. Instead of watching the news of what is happening in your area, you should learn what is happening throughout the whole world and how you can help solve the problems.

2. Explain how one becomes a citizen in the United States, and explain the rights, duties, and obligations of U.S. citizenship.

How:

You can become a US citizen if you are naturally born here, if you are born to US parents, by marrying a US citizen, through naturalization, or through the naturalization of your parents.

Rights:

You have the right to vote, to a fair trial, to bear arms, to free speech, free press, free religion, and the ability to run for office.
