Startupland Mikkel Svane, 2014-11-13 The real story of what it takes to risk it all and go for broke Conventional wisdom says most startups need to be in Silicon Valley started by young engineers around a sexy new idea and backed by VC funding But as Mikkel Svane reveals in Startupland the story of founding Zendesk was anything but conventional Founded in a Copenhagen loft by three thirty something friends looking to break free from corporate doldrums Zendesk Inc is now one of the hottest enterprise software companies still rapidly growing with customers in 150 countries But its success was anything but predestined With revealing stories both funny and frank Mikkel shares how he and his friends bravely left secure jobs to start something on their own how he almost went broke several times how they picked up themselves and their families to travel across the world to California and the unknown and how the three friends were miraculously still together for Zendesk's IPO and still growing success Much like Zendesk's mission itself to remove friction barriers and mystery in order to make customer service easier and more approachable Startupland removes some of the myths about startups and startup founders Mikkel's advice hard won through experience often bucks conventional wisdom and entrepreneurial tropes He shares why failure whether fast or slow is awful why a seemingly boring product or idea can be the most exciting why giving back to the community is as important as the bottom line From how to hire right look for people who are not offended by swearing to which personas generate the highest response rates Mikkel answers the most pressing questions from the perspective of someone still in the trenches and willing to share the hard truth warts and all While there are books by consultants who tell you how to build businesses or by entrepreneurs now running billion dollar businesses there are few books from people still in the trenches who acutely remember the difficult daily decisions the thrill and fears of the early days the problems that scale with growing a business and the reason why they all went on the adventure in the first place Startupland is indispensable reading for all entrepreneurs who want to make their ideas the next big thing The book will inspire and empower you to follow your own dream and create your own story

Lost and Founder Rand Fishkin, 2018-04-24 Rand Fishkin the founder and former CEO of Moz reveals how traditional Silicon Valley wisdom leads far too many startups astray with the transparency and humor that his hundreds of thousands of blog readers have come to love Everyone knows how a startup story is supposed to go A young brilliant entrepreneur has a cool idea drops out of college defies the doubters overcomes all odds makes billions and becomes the envy of the technology world This is not that story It's not that things went badly for Rand Fishkin they just weren't quite so Zuckerbergesque His company Moz maker of marketing software is now a 45 million year business and he's one of the world's leading experts on SEO But his business and reputation took fifteen years to grow and his startup began not in a Harvard dorm room but as a mother and son family business that fell deeply into debt Now Fishkin pulls back the curtain on tech startup mythology exposing the ups and downs of startup life that most CEOs would rather keep secret For instance A minimally viable product can be destructive if you launch at the wrong moment Growth hacking may be the buzzword du jour but initiatives can fizzle quickly Revenue and growth won't protect you from layoffs And venture capital always comes with strings attached Fishkin's hard won lessons are applicable to any kind of business environment Up or down the chain of command at both early stage startups and mature companies whether your trajectory is riding high or down in the dumps this book can help solve your problems and make you feel less alone for having them
