Friday Khutbahs In English And Arabic :

Islamic Sermons and Public Piety in Bangladesh Max Stille, 2020-05-14 Islamic sermon gatherings are a central form of public piety and public expression in contemporary Bangladesh. Held since the 19th century, waz mahfils became so popular that it is today possible to participate in them on a daily basis in many regions of the country. Despite their significance in the rise of popular politics, the sermons are often disregarded as Islamist propaganda and very little research is dedicated to them. This book provides unprecedented access into these sermon gatherings. Based on fieldwork and interviews, Max Stille analyses an archive of several dozens of sermons. He shows how popular preaching shapes roles and rules of what can be said, imagined and felt. Waz mahfils are a participatory practice of the labouring classes in which religious, political and poetic consensus overlap. In them, Islamic tenets and morals are part of dramatic narrations, vocal art and affective communication ranging from immersion and upheaval to laughter about political jokes and parody. Suggesting new ways to interpret musical and performative poetics of Islamic speech, this book calls for expanding conceptions of civic participation and public discourse and rethinking the role of the senses and religious aesthetics in Islam. The Big Step Mahdi Lock, 2018-01-03 What does it mean to become a Muslim? What tends to happen when someone becomes Muslim in the English speaking world and why? Is there an agenda at play? Is Anglosphere Islam not everything it is cracked up to be? Does it have a future? How can a new Muslim thrive in such circumstances? In The Big Step you will find the answers to these questions and so much more.

Multilingual La La Land Claire Hitchins Chik, 2021-09-30 Home to immigrants from more than 140 countries speaking over 180 languages, Los Angeles is a microcosm of the world. While Los Angeles ethnic enclaves have been the subject of study by researchers from a wide range of fields, these enclaves remain under researched from a linguistic standpoint. Multilingual La La Land addresses the sociolinguistic landscape of the Greater Los Angeles GLA area, providing in depth accounts of the sixteen most spoken languages other than English in the region. Each chapter introduces the history of the language in the L A region, uses census figures and residential densities to examine location based and network based speech communities, and discusses the patterns of usage that characterize the language, including motivations to maintain the language. How these patterns and trends bear on the vitality of each language is a central consideration of this book.

Muslim Worldviews and Everyday Lives El-Sayed el-Aswad, 2012-07-13 El Aswad introduces the concepts of worldviews, cosmologies of Muslims, explaining that the different types of worldviews are not constructed solely by religious scholars or intellectual elite but are latent in Islamic tradition, embedded in popular imagination and triggered through people's everyday interaction in various countries and communities. He draws from a number of sources including in depth interviews and participant observation as well as government documents and oral history. Through the perspectives of ethno cosmology, emic interpretation of sacred tradition, modernity, folklore, geography, dream, imagination, hybridity and identity transformation, he examines how culturally and religiously constructed images of the world influence the daily actions of people in various

Muslim communities The worldviews of Sunnis Shi as and Sufis are covered in turn and Muslims in the UAE Egypt Bahrain and suburban Detroit are the focus el Aswad also discusses the effects of Western attempts at imposing its essentially secular worldview through the process of globalization and how cyberspace has promoted connectivity among Muslim communities and especially in the United States opened up unlimited options and new possibilities Rhetoric and Religion in the
