Locating the Voice in Film Tom Whittaker, Sarah Wright, 2017 This book locates the voice in cinema in different national and transnational contexts to explore how the critical approaches to the voice as well as the practices of sound design technologies and even reception are often grounded in cultural specificity to present readings which challenge traditional theories of the voice in film

The Routledge Companion to Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Katja Krebs, Eckart Voigts, 2018-04-17 The Routledge Companion to Adaptation offers a broad range of scholarship from this growing interdisciplinary field With a basis in source oriented studies such as novel to stage and stage to film adaptations this volume also seeks to highlight the new and innovative aspects of adaptation studies ranging from theatre and dance to radio television and new media It is divided into five sections Mapping which presents a variety of perspectives on the scope and development of adaptation studies Historiography which investigates the ways in which adaptation engages with and disrupts history Identity which considers texts and practices in adaptation as sites of multiple and fluid identity formations Reception which examines the role played by an audience considering the unpredictable relationships between adaptations and those who experience them Technology which focuses on the effects of ongoing technological advances and shifts on specific adaptations and on the wider field of adaptation An emphasis on adaptation as practice establishes methods of investigation that move beyond a purely comparative case study model The Routledge Companion to Adaptation celebrates the complexity and diversity of adaptation studies mapping the field across genres and disciplines

Nature Swapped and Nature Lost Elia Apostolopoulou, 2020-06-23 This book unravels the profound implications of biodiversity offsetting for nature society relationships and its links to environmental and social inequality Drawing on people s resistance against its implementation in several urban and rural places across England it explores how the production of equivalent natures the core promise of offsetting reframes socionatures both discursively and materially transforming places and livelihoods The book draws on theories and concepts from human geography political ecology and Marxist political economy and aims to shift the trajectory of the current literature on the interplay between offsetting urbanization and the neoliberal reconstruction of conservation and planning policies in the era following the 2008 financial crash By shedding light on offsetting s contested geographies it offers a fundamental retheorization of offsetting capable of demonstrating how offsetting and more broadly revanchist neoliberal policies are increasingly used to support capitalist urban growth producing socially environmentally and geographically uneven outcomes Nature Swapped and Nature Lost brings forward an understanding of environmental politics as class politics and sees environmental justice as inextricably linked to social justice It effectively challenges the dystopia of offsetting s ahistorical and asocial non places and proposes a radically different pathway for gaining social control over the production of nature by linking struggles for the right to the city with struggles for the right to nature for all
