Kahari, 1990 Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture Robert Muponde, Ranka

Primorac, 2005-06-15 The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing The contributors focus on pluralities inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice Aspects of the Shona Novel and Other Related Genres George P. Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English Multidisciplinary Knowledge Production and Research Methods in

Sub-Saharan Africa Tobias Marevesa, Ernest Jakaza, Esther Mavengano, 2023-08-25 This book Multidisciplinary Knowledge Production and Research Methods in Sub Saharan Africa Language Literature and Religion contributes to the polemical conversations about existing architectures of knowledge and research practices in postcolonial sub Saharan Africa It creates an academic platform for multi interdisciplinary research that brings to the fore inspiring efforts to break away from long standing disciplinary bordering thinking and practices in modern day sub Saharan Africa This distinctive edited collection is a valuable resource for scholars researchers and students of multi interdisciplinary research across the globe The volume also promotes wide ranging research focused on how to address complexities which hamper the promise of multi interdisciplinary research in contemporary sub Saharan African contexts It provides thought provoking perspectives on academic conversations about the uniqueness of embracing multidisciplinary research The traditional methods of interpretation are challenged by the radical emerging demand to shift from a mono disciplinary thinking to a cross disciplinary epistemic endeavour in order to successfully address unfolding problematic realities that demand the pursuit of novel heuristic terrains African Literature in the Twentieth Century O. R. Dathorne, 1975 Explores intellectual currents in African prose and verse from sung or chanted lines to modern writings Zimbolicious Anthology: Volume 4 Mwanaka, Tendai Rinos, Mzinyathi, Jabulani, 2019-10-22 The latest Zimbolicious offering Zimbolicious Anthology An Anthology of Zimbabwean Literature and Arts Vol 4 has nonfiction poetry an interview fiction and incisive visual art Works were received from regular contributors and relatively new artists The poets with their collective audacious eye keenly observe society and reveal the pimples warts and all that is afflicting the society talk about the dying already dead and decaying Zimbabwean currency or nonexistent currency the emancipation of women the grinding poverty and the political challenges Zimbabwe faces Others deal with spirituality and religion love growing up without a father figure Nonfiction work leaves one under a barrage of questions What it means to be a Zimbabwean the defining and dissecting of Zimbabwe s literature writing self publishing are put under serious scrutiny Some delicious slices of the scenic Zimbabwean landscape are featured and a continuation in investigating what home is in a selection of visual art pieces The fiction is speculative bittersweet and stays on your mind like a memory of that long long forgotten summer of love as each fictionist deal with issues related to relationships love the lack of the impermanence of which is an ever recurring leitmotiv in these works thus therefore this Zimbolicious is a must read robust incisive collection of Zimbabwean Literature and the arts Zimbolicious Anthology: Volume 4 Rinos Mwanaka, Jabulani Mzinyathi, 2019-10-22 The latest Zimbolicious offering Zimbolicious Anthology An Anthology of Zimbabwean Literature and Arts Vol 4 has nonfiction poetry an interview fiction and incisive visual art Works were received from regular contributors and relatively new artists The poets with their collective audacious eye keenly observe society and reveal the pimples warts and all that is afflicting the society talk about the dying already dead and decaying Zimbabwean currency or nonexistent currency the emancipation of women the grinding poverty and the political challenges Zimbabwe faces Others deal with spirituality and religion love growing up without a father figure Nonfiction work leaves one under a barrage of questions What it means to be a Zimbabwean the defining and dissecting of Zimbabwe s literature writing self publishing are put under serious scrutiny Some delicious slices of the scenic Zimbabwean landscape are featured and a continuation in investigating what home is in a selection of visual art pieces The fiction is speculative bittersweet and stays on your mind like a memory of that long long forgotten summer of love as each fictionist deal with issues related to relationships love the lack of the impermanence of which is an ever recurring leitmotiv in these works thus therefore this Zimbolicious is a must read robust incisive collection of Zimbabwean Literature and the arts Now That the Dust Has Settled Athanasio Dzadagu, 2015-03-26 In this book I try to explore why one section of the Catholic Community connected with the late Archbishop Chakaipa was overtaken by great remorse when he died while another went into jubilation This leads me into the examination of what kind of person Archbishop Chakaipa was I do this in the context of his family background and his priestly and Episcopal ministries He was of the Unendoro clan with a history tracing back to Karanga roots In his Seminary years he wrote five Shona novels which became very influential in developing Shona literacy He earned enduring respect across the entire Zimbabwean nation for this achievement Within Church circles Archbishop Chakaipas name is synonymous with the policy of self reliance which was his signal achievement in the Archdiocese of Harare He was determined to see the development of indigenous Zimbabwean writers frustrated that the world of ideas in Zimbabwe was dominated by Eurogenic of European origin missionaries In his view such Eurogenic intellectual domination undermined Zimbabwean and African independence In the book I argue that while Archbishop Chakaipa was a hero indeed one deserving of canonisation as a Catholic saint true respect for him should also acknowledge his negative qualities The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac, 2006-06-30 THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by Weaver Press in Harare The Black Mind Oscar Ronald Dathorne, 1976 Africa in a Multilateral World Albert Kasanda, Marek Hrubec, 2021-07-29 The book analyses how Africans and Africa relate to other parts of the multilateral world and to the world in general and how these relations stem from local national and regional interactions in different parts of Africa as well as Africa as a whole The first part focuses on the assumptions that are necessary to understand the role of Africa on the global stage especially from the perspectives of political philosophy and global and international studies The second part of the book looks at both Afropolitan trends and the limits of Afropolitanism In the third part the authors focus on specific African global tendencies stemming from the local conditions in several case studies Traditional and modern politics is connected problematically with the current Jihadist organisations in the local African conditions related to unilateralism and global war on terror for example The fourth part deals with the relevance of the language ambivalence in relation to global interactions It examines various views of African philosophy and lays bare the perception of earlier colonial languages in view of their current strength of global action This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies political philosophy politics and global studies Cultural Transformations in the English-Speaking World Cécile Cottenet, Jean-Christophe Murat, Nathalie Vanfasse, 2009-12-14 In a context where cultural transformations have become a basic feature of modern life as people and nations are brought closer together this book tackles transformations occurring within and across cultures of the English speaking world in the fields of literature painting architecture photography and film It helps readers decipher these dynamic phenomena and situate them in a historical perspective The articles move within and across cultures and mirror the broad range of approaches to cultural practices that have appeared in the past few decades They provide readers with tools to work out the transformations these practices undergo and the new life and meaning this process infuses into cultures of the English speaking world This book will be useful to graduate and doctoral students as well as post doctoral researchers working in film studies cultural studies art history literature and creative writing Its clear language and pedagogical approaches will also make it accessible to the general public The Writing of East and Central Africa G.
