

Short Story Analysis

One of the best ways to improve yourself as a writer is to learn from other writers and adapt their ideas and strategies for your own stories.

The more you read, the better at your craft you will become.

We will explore a short story today called 'The Necklace' by Guy de Maupassant

Read the first paragraph and the opening to the story.

What do you think this story is going to be about? Why?

How has the writer introduced the story?

Why might this be an effective opening to the story? Provide examples.

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story
