Sea Without Shore A Manual Of The Sufi Path Nuh Ha Mim Keller:

Sea Without Shore Noah Ha Mim Keller, 2011 Sufism East and West Jamal Malik, Saeed

Zarrabi-Zadeh, 2019-07-15 In Sufism East and West the contributors investigate the redirection and dynamics of Sufism in the modern era specifically from the perspective of global cross cultural exchange Edited by Jamal Malik and Saeed Zarrabi Zadeh the book explores the role of mystical Islam in the complex interchange and fluidity in the resonance spaces of East and West The volume challenges the enduring Orientalist binary coding of East versus West and argues instead for a more mutual process of cultural plaiting and shared tradition By highlighting amendments adaptations and expansions of Sufi semantics during the last centuries it also questions the persistent perception of Sufism in its post classical epoch as a corrupt imitation of the legacy of the great Sufis of the past

Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi Gregory A. Lipton, 2018-04-02 The thirteenth century mystic Ibn Arabi was the foremost Sufi theorist of the premodern era For more than a century Western scholars and esotericists have heralded his universalism arguing that he saw all contemporaneous religions as equally valid In Rethinking Ibn Arabi Gregory Lipton calls this image into question and throws into relief how Ibn Arabi's discourse is inseparably intertwined with the absolutist vision of his own religious milieu that is the triumphant claim that Islam fulfilled superseded and therefore abrogated all previous revealed religions Lipton juxtaposes Ibn Arabi's absolutist conception with the later reception of his ideas exploring how they have been read appropriated and universalized within the reigning interpretive field of Perennial Philosophy in the study of Sufism The contours that surface through this comparative analysis trace the discursive practices that inform Ibn Arabi's Western reception back to the eighteenth and nineteenth century study of authentic religion where European ethno racial superiority was wielded against the Semitic Other both Jewish and Muslim Lipton argues that supersessionist models of exclusivism are buried under contemporary Western constructions of religious authenticity in ways that ironically mirror Ibn Arabi's medieval absolutism

Sufism in Western Contexts Marcia K. Hermansen, Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh, 2023-07-03 Sufism in Western Contexts explores both historical trajectories and multiple contemporary manifestations of Islamic mystical movements ideas and practices in diverse European North and South American countries as well as in Australia all traditionally non Muslim regions of the global West From early French and British colonial administrators who admired Persian poetry to nineteenth century American transcendentalists followed by South Asian and Middle Eastern immigrant Sufi guides and their movements expansive and many faceted expressions of Sufism such as its role in Western esotericism female whirling dervishes and Rumi cafes and new articulations in cyberspace are traced and analyzed by international experts in the field
