Clawson, R. Lee, 2016-04-30 It is commonly known that the Andean nations of Colombia Peru and Bolivia are the international centers of cocaine production But until now there has been no comprehensive view of this billion dollar industry Using never before unearthed information culled from their extensive field research Patrick Clawson and Rensselaer Lee reveal the configuration of the drug industry from the original cultivation of coca in the fields of South

America to the sale of cocaine on the streets of the United States The authors analyze the economic and political impact of the drug business on the Andean nations including such problems as violence and the undermining of legitimate business Through the ground breaking work of Clawson and Lee The Andean Cocaine Industry illuminates one of the most pervasive problems facing the world today South American Handbook, 1996 Ben Box,1995 This compact handbook gives the most complete and up to date information on how to get to locations in South America when to go what to see and how to make the trip a success 50 color photos and maps

Defining Boundaries in al-Andalus Janina M. Safran,2013-04-09 Al Andalus the Arabic name for the medieval Islamic state in Iberia endured for over 750 years following the Arab and Berber conquest of Hispania in 711 While the popular perception of al Andalus is that of a land of religious tolerance and cultural cooperation the fact is that we know relatively little about how Muslims governed Christians and Jews in al Andalus and about social relations among Muslims Christians and Jews In Defining Boundaries in al Andalus Janina M Safran takes a close look at the structure and practice of Muslim political and legal religious authority and offers a rare look at intercommunal life in Iberia during the first three centuries of Islamic rule Safran makes creative use of a body of evidence that until now has gone largely untapped by historians the writings and opinions of Andalusí and Maghribí jurists during the Umayyad dynasty These sources enable her to bring to life a society undergoing dramatic transformation Obvious differences between conquerors and conquered and Muslims and non Muslims became blurred over time by transculturation intermarriage and conversion Safran examines ample evidence of intimate contact between individuals of different religious communities and of legal juridical accommodation to develop an argument about how legal religious authorities interpreted the social contract between the Muslim regime and the Christian and Jewish populations Providing a variety of examples of boundary testing and negotiation and bringing judges jurists and their legal opinions and texts into the narrative of Andalusí history Safran deepens our understanding of the politics of Umayyad rule makes Islamic law tangibly social and renders intercommunal relations vividly personal
