Peter Saville Declan Stone, 1992 Peter Saville Peter Saville, 2009 The flat pack plinth has a direct correspondence with designer Peter Saville's observation that it all looks like art to me now When Saville exhibited his Estate at the Migros Museum Zurich in 2005/06 he deliberately presented the last room as a work in progress Included were objects that he knew did not have contemporary artistic currency but objects that somehow still seemed pertinent materials of an idea Not wanting to present these objects as artworks Saville had laid them out on tables apart from one an exceptional plastic bird which he chose to place on a plinth It was in this action that Peter appreciated the transformative energy of the plinth an energy he felt others were ready to share Saville has now designed and fabricated a white cardboard flat pack plinth Made of white centred display board and in a prototype edition of 200 the plinth replicates those conventionally made from wood He has invited 22 other artists including Richard Hamilton Peter Blake Robert Longo Wolfgang Tillmans Brian Eno and Jeremy Deller to place anything of their choice on a plinth Saville's flat pack plinth recognizes the public's own ability and transfers to them the power of curatorial decision allowing anyone now to pass judgment on what is worth looking at It acknowledges a changing audience and their will to consume art The flat pack plinth is their DIY accessory in a time when culture has briefly stopped to let millions of people on board Advances in Fashion and Design Research III Joana Cunha, Ana Cristina Broega, Helder Carvalho, Bernardo Providência, 2025-02-27 This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective on research and developments at the interface between industrial design textile engineering and fashion It covers advances in fashion and product design and in textile production alike reporting on sustainable industrial procedures ergonomics research and practices new materials and circular design as well as issues in marketing communication and education A special emphasis is given to the theme of fashion's cultural and productive landscapes and to sustainable strategies in design Gathering the proceedings of the 7th International Fashion and Design Congress CIMODE 2024 held on November 11-13 2024 in Caserta Italy this book offers extensive information and a source of inspiration to both researchers and professionals in the field of fashion design engineering communication as well as education
