Lucian Blaga Humanitas:

Literary Translation and the Idea of a Minor Romania Sean Cotter, 2014 Examines translations by canonical Romanian writers Lucian Blaga Constantin Noica and Emil Cioran arguing that their works reveal a new minor mode of national identity Lucian Blaga: Selected Philosophical Extracts R. T. Allen, Angela Botez, Henrieta Anișoara Șerban, 2018-04-15 After the Editor's General Introduction the extracts include central elements of Blaga's metaphysics general epistemology philosophies of science history religion language and especially metaphor the experience of space and time art and finally culture which includes all of them especially the presence in all of style and distinctive ways of practising them All these extracts are linked by his general epistemology especially his distinction between two types of knowledge paradisiac or Type 1 which is that of everyday awareness and the current methods concepts and presuppositions of the sciences of nature and humanity plus mathematics and philosophy and accumulates in plus knowledge and resolves problems in standard ways and Luciferian or Type 2 which opens up the mysteries of new realms of reality which do not fit the current methods concepts and presuppositions and so results in minus knowledge the awareness that there are things which at the moment we cannot understand For these mysteries new methods concepts and presuppositions are required which abyssal categories can supply ones below those we normally employ and may be aware of It is part of man's role in the cosmos to reveal such mysteries They are also linked by Blaga's awareness of historical changes especially dogmatic aeons in which a prevailing framework of categories etc guides knowledge and research and ones in which Type 2 knowledge dominates and new frameworks are eventually created Each extract has its own Introduction which places it in the context of the rest of his interlinked philosophy They show how Blaga with both general themes and concepts and also with particular examples combines much of the concerns and methods of Analytic and Continental philosophy and how his historical perspective applied especially to modern times long before anyone spoke of postmodernism and thus as in his lifetime

Women's Life Writing in Post-Communist Romania Simona Mitroiu, 2022-11-07 This book analyzes the impact of abusive regimes of power on women's lives and on their self-expression through close readings of life writing by women in communist Romania In particular it examines the forms of agency and privacy available to women under totalitarianism and the modes of relationships in which their lives were embedded The self-expression and self-reflexive processes that are to be found in the body of Romanian women's autobiographical writings this study presents create complex private narratives that underpin the creative development of inclusive memories of the past through shared responsibility and shared agency At the same time however the way these private personal narratives intertwined with collective and official historical narratives exemplifies the multidimensional nature of privacy as well as the radical redefinition of agency in this period This book argues for a broader understanding of the narratives of the communist past one that reflects the complexity of individual and social interactions and allows a deep exploration of the interconnected relations between memory trauma nostalgia agency and privacy History of communism in Europe: Vol. 5 / 2014 Dalia Bathory, Nu s au introdus date Perspectives on Literature and Translation Brian Nelson, Brigid Maher, 2013-10-15 This volume explores the relationship between literature and translation from three perspectives the creative dimensions of the translation process the way texts circulate between languages and the way texts are received in translation by new audiences The distinctiveness of the volume lies in the fact that it considers these fundamental aspects of literary translation together and in terms of their interconnections Contributors examine a wide variety of texts including world classics poetry genre fiction transnational literature and life writing from around the world Both theoretical and empirical issues are covered with some contributors approaching the topic as practitioners of literary translation and others writing from within the academy Romanian Literature as World Literature Mircea Martin, Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, 2017-12-28 Approaching Romanian literature as world literature this book is a critical theoretical manifesto that places its object at the crossroads of empires regions and influences and draws conclusions whose relevance extends beyond the Romanian Romance and East European cultural systems This intersectional revisiting of Romanian literature is organized into three parts Opening with a fresh look at the literary ideology of Romania's national poet Mihai Eminescu part I dwells primarily on literary cultural history as process and discipline Here the focus is on cross cultural mimesis the role of strategic imitation in the production of a distinct literature in modern Romania and the shortcomings marking traditional literary historiography's handling of these issues Part II examines the ethno linguistic and territorial complexity of Romanian literatures or Romanian literature in the plural Part III takes up the trans systemic rise of Romanian Jewish Romanian and Romanian European avant garde and modernism Socialist Realism exile and migr literature and translation The Political Anthropology of Ethnic and Religious Minorities Arpad Szakolczai, Agnes Horvath, Attila Z. Papp, 2018-12-07 This book presents some arguments for why a political anthropological perspective can be particularly helpful for understanding the connected political and cultural challenges and opportunities posed by the situation of ethnic and religious minorities The first chapter shortly introduces the major anthropological concepts used including liminality trickster imitation and schismogenesis concepts that are used together with approaches of historical sociology and genealogy especially concerning the rise and fall of empires and their lasting impact The conceptual framework suggested here is particularly helpful for understanding how marginal places can become liminal appearing suddenly at the center of political attention The introduction also shows the manner in which minority existence can problematize the depersonalizing tendencies of modern globalization Subsequent chapters demonstrate how the described political anthropological conceptual framework can be used in certain European regions and in the case of certain ethnic and religious minority and each illustrates that instead of charismatic leaders trickster politicians are emerging and increasingly dominate through the public sphere the space of modern politics emptied of real presence The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics Romania since the Second World War Florin

both the French and Romanian editions of these works but also their original manuscripts this volume seeks to provide a re-reading that takes language rather than a social or political critique as its focal point As an important and provocative contribution to the existing literature on Cioran this book will be an essential point of reference for students and researchers alike
