Modernist Idealism Michael J. Subialka, 2021-11-01 Offering a new approach to the intersection of literature and philosophy Modernist Idealism contends that certain models of idealist thought require artistic form for their full development and that modernism realizes philosophical idealism in aesthetic form This comparative view of modernism employs tools from intellectual history literary analysis and philosophical critique focusing on the Italian reception of German idealist thought from the mid 1800s to the Second World War Modernist Idealism intervenes in ongoing debates about the nineteenth and twentieth century resurgence of materialism and spiritualism as well as the relation of decadent avant garde and modernist production Michael J Subialka aims to open new discursive space for the philosophical study of modernist literary and visual culture considering not only philosophical and literary texts but also early cinema The author s main contention is that in various media and with sometimes radically different political and cultural aims a host of modernist artists and thinkers can be seen as sharing in a project to realize idealist philosophical worldviews in aesthetic form

Characters and Authors in Luigi Pirandello Ann Caesar, 1998 Luigi Pirandello is best known in the English speaking world for his radical challenge to traditional Western theatre with plays such as Six Characters in Search of an Author But theatre is just one manifestation of his experiments with language which led to a remarkable collection of novels short stories and essays as well as his work for a film industry then in its infancy This study which is based on the view that Pirandello s writings are most fruitfully discussed in a European context takes as its starting point the author s belief in the primacy of the literary character in a creative process which is necessarily conflictual The book argues that all Pirandello s characters are engaged in a continual performance which transcends the genre distinction between narrative and dramatic forms In this performance it is the spoken word in which the characters invest most heavily as they struggle to sustain an identity of their own tell their life stories and assert themselves before their most prominent antagonist the author himself Pirandello

Il racconto e il romanzo filosofico nella modernità Anna Dolfi, 2013 In the first pages of the Zibaldone Leopardi had noted that the love of learning induces a passion for philosophy making it a foundational element of modern culture In this perspective then no doubt remains as to the prominent position of Voltaire's Candide or of Rousseau's thought which combines philosophical thinking educational demands political passion and autobiography However in order to move from the count to the novel from the apologue and from the treatises to complex characters who also maintain a strong and speculative allure one had to leave the 18th century experience Romanticism feed the r veries of the new promeneurs solitaires during the following century with the restlessness and the questions of Dostoevsky Kafka Sartre Camus and of Pirandello Proust Musil and many others of those who combined the passion for short stories with the unmasking of any deceptive theodicy Bringing the the novel back to bourgeois intertwining and existential anxieties starting from Cervantes's ironic way of thinking In the absence of declarations however where does one find the evidence of the presence of the philosophique in the novel or how does one identify texts pertaining to the definition of roman philosophique This book conceived and edited by Anna Dolfi does not only raises the problem but tries to solve it as well At the same time it brings the ideas of the novel and from the novel together with constructive theories and compares the insignificant with significance mythical emblems and codes semiosis and destiny while also observing how language in the parade of the authors changes itself and even touches the figurativeness of the graphic novel This volume constitutes the final point of arrival of a path which in samples locks significant fragments in the otherwise infinite kaleidoscope of narration
