Digital Storytelling Shilo T. McClean,2008-09-26 How digital visual effects in film can be used to support storytelling a guide for scriptwriters and students Computer generated effects are often blamed for bad Hollywood movies Yet when a critic complains that technology swamps storytelling in a review of Van Helsing calling it an example of everything that is wrong with Hollywood computer generated effects movies it says more about the weakness of the story than the strength of the technology In Digital Storytelling Shilo McClean shows how digital visual effects can be a tool of storytelling in film adding narrative power as do sound color and experimental camera angles other innovative film technologies that were once criticized for being distractions from the story It is time she says to rethink the function of digital visual effects Effects artists say contrary to the critics that effects always derive from story Digital effects are a part of production not post production they are becoming part of the story development process Digital Storytelling is grounded in filmmaking the scriptwriting process in particular McClean considers crucial questions about digital visual effects whether they undermine classical storytelling structure if they always call attention to themselves whether their use is limited to certain genres and looks at contemporary films including a chapter long analysis of Steven Spielberg s use of computer generated effects and contemporary film theory to find the answers McClean argues that to consider digital visual effects as simply contributing the wow factor underestimates them They are she writes the legitimate inheritors of film storycraft

Life Or Movie Mickael L. Rozwarski,2002 Life or movie Which comes first is a glimpse into an aspiring screenwriter s mind as he tries to figure out the inner workings of high concept movies The author starts out with the premise that there are very easy rules that govern storytelling rules which are universal and tolerate no exceptions That is how he was led to discard traditional perspectives of movie analysis one after the other Field Campbell Jung Freud which all proved to be unfaithful to observable facts The author proposes then a change of paradigm and a different look at storytelling fiction is like magic you cannot explain it or it will break the spell ruin the magic But when you think about it there are no two rational ways of making a rabbit appear from a hat
