Read and revise

Read the whole story through once, focusing on the way Robert's feelings about his daughters change.

- 1 Robert is unhappy about a number of things in his life. The first of these things is suggested in the first paragraph. What is it, and how do you know?
- 2 Throughout the story things do not happen as Robert expects. What is the first indication of this, in the second paragraph?
- 3 The next five paragraphs, up to 'Hullo, hullo, children' (line 25), are all about the garden, which suggests that it is important in the story in some way. The garden is described as 'a wilderness'. Look through the five paragraphs, and pick out the things that are 'wild' in the garden.
 - The parents hoped that the children 'should do what they liked' in the garden. How does this relate to the rest of the story?
 - Quick prefers the 'wild' garden to the 'shaved' and 'combed' gardens of his neighbours? Think about the end of the story, and what Quick seems to prefer by then.

Joyce Cary. A House of Children Joyce Cary,1951 Articles by and about Joyce Cary Joyce Cary,1950 Images of Montenegro in Anglo-American Creative Writing and Film Neil Diamond,Marija Knežević,2017-01-06 This book observes images of Montenegro in Anglo American creative writing and films from the late eighteenth century until 2016 Like the Balkans as a whole Montenegro usually reappeared in the West s consciousness with the outbreak of wars but remained marginalized on the larger Balkan map because of its peripheral political influence and therefore remained little known In the past Montenegro was experienced as almost unapproachable barren and wild Its people like their mountains were seen as massive and fierce while their primitivism equally delighted and repulsed visitors Even today when one searches the Internet for Montenegro one finds titles mostly containing modifiers circling around undiscovered magical and mysterious The book follows these vignettes chronologically to point out how the rhetoric they share dangerously builds a caricature of the country However they also provide a very lively mosaic of landscapes history people their costumes houses and everyday life which are sometimes distorted No one can claim that these descriptions were not influenced by the ideologies the travellers inherited at home and were not filtered through their own cultural grids but significantly they evoke places that are now forever lost destroyed in wars by earthquakes faulty development planning or simply by time The novels of Joyce Cary Joyce Cary,1952 The novels of Joyce Cary Joyce Cary,1952 The Heroic Anthropologist Rides Again Frank A.
