Jurisprudence Lecture Notes Peter Curzon, 1998-12-01 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Jurist .. ,1866 The Quest for Constitutionalism Hugh Corder, Veronica Federico, 2016-02-24 This volume provides a timely assessment on the progress made towards the achievement of a constitutional democracy in South Africa The chapters collectively present an in depth analysis of the development of the legal system and of the implications of the Constitution for the social configuration of power To what extent has the vision of constitutionalism contained in the Constitution been realised Primarily concerned with the impact of laws and the salience of their existence and enforcement for South Africans the work highlights the importance of placing the constitutional regime in its historical cultural social economic and political context The book further recognises the importance of the South African constitutional provisions for transnational or globalised constitutionalism more broadly It contains contributions from South African scholars as well as European authors bringing in new analytical angles and adding a specific comparative dimension Through the prism of South Africa the authors discuss the innovative character of constitutional and legal provisions in terms of both constitution making and law making processes and their contents This book provides analysis that will be relevant to scholars students and practitioners specifically those interested in International Relations Law Sociology of Law and African Studies as well as socio political comparative studies Defending Materialism Katerina Kolozova, William Paul Cockshott, Greg Michaelson, 2024-11-14 Nobody doubted that atoms were real once atomic energy was developed but in the early 20th century and before their existence was widely doubted Defending Materialism follows the political and theoretical background of this intense philosophical controversy defending atomistic and mechanical materialism against idealist paradigms These accounts range from the explicit idealism criticised by Lenin and Einstein to the implicit Hegelian idealism that influenced Soviet dialectical materialism Following several key threads the authors trace how the idea of atoms has changed over the centuries how ideology has influenced both sides of the idealism materialism divide and how the nature of time in physics biology and human society can give a fresh view of historical materialism Starting from the origins of materialism in ancient Greek thought and moving through its revival in Isaac Newton and Charles Darwin gives a full picture of the links between the Marxist tradition and the coarse materiality to which the worlds of science and philosophy have found themselves both subscribed and averse Jurisprudence Leslie Basil Curzon, 1995 Current Law Index ,2006 Tackling Domestic Violence: Theories, Policies and Practice Lynne Harne, Jill Radford, 2008-07-16 This accessible text takes a multi disciplinary approach to exploring issues surrounding domestic violence It draws on contemporary research findings policy developments innovative practice and case studies to explore new directions in professional and voluntary sector responses to domestic violence Centred on the United Kingdom but located in a context of global change the book discusses and critically evaluates new criminal justice and multi agency initiatives such as domestic violence courts and risk assessment conferences as well as assessing how far these initiatives improve the safety of women and children Harne and Radford aim to disseminate ideas about best practice in relation to dealing with this sensitive and still controversial issue They use real life case studies from professionals including the police health services and Women s Aid and are inclusive of the experiences of a wide range of survivors in order to enable an understanding of the need for appropriate responses depending on different survivor needs Tackling Domestic Violence provides an informed background for professionals in the police probation health and social care services the legal system and voluntary sector with a remit to respond to domestic violence It is also highly relevant to those undertaking courses on domestic violence at undergraduate and postgraduate level

The Laws and Jurisprudence of England and America John F. Dillon, 2015-09-27 Excerpt from The Laws and Jurisprudence of England and America Being a Series of Lectures Delivered Before Yale University Nothing can be less ambitious than this volume The introduction to the first lecture shows the circumstances under which the lectures were given and the scope and purpose of the course I have however added some notes in the line of further development or illustration It might have been more artistic to have recast the whole working the notes into the text but if this had been done the loss would have exceeded the gain since the lectures thus remodelled would not have been the lectures delivered and they would moreover have contained details not adapted to oral discourses Besides it is a prized privilege of the teacher to make use of the first person as this enables him to address his hearers more directly and more forcibly than in any other way It is of set purpose then that I publish the lectures in their original form About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
