Missionaries, Anthropologists, and Music in the Indonesian Archipelago Anna Maria Busse Berger, Henry Spiller, 2025-03-18 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Although the history of Indonesian music has received much attention from ethnomusicologists and Western composers alike almost nothing has been written on the interaction of missionaries with local culture This study represents the first attempt to concentrate on the musical dimension of missionary activities in Indonesia In fourteen essays a group of distinguished scholars show the complexity of the topic while some missionaries did important scholarship on local music making recordings and attempting to use local music in services others tried to suppress whatever they found Many were collaborating closely with anthropologists who admitted freely that they could not have done their work without them And both parties brought colonial biases into their work By grappling with these realities and records this book is a collective effort to decolonize the project of making music histories Routledge Handbook of Asian Music: Cultural Intersections Tong Soon Lee, 2021-04-15 The Routledge Handbook of Asian Music Cultural Intersections introduces Asian music as a way to ask questions about what happens when cultures converge and how readers may evaluate cultural junctures through expressive forms The volume's thirteen original chapters cover musical practices in historical and modern contexts from Central Asia East Asia South Asia and Southeast Asia including art music traditions folk music and composition religious and ritual music as well as popular music These chapters showcase the diversity of Asian music requiring readers to constantly reconsider their understanding of this vibrant and complex area The book is divided into three sections Locating meanings Boundaries and difference Cultural flows Contributors to the book offer a multidisciplinary portfolio of methods ranging from archival research and field ethnography to biographical studies and music analysis In addition to rich illustrations numerous samples of notation and sheet music are featured as insightful study resources Readers are invited to study individuals music makers listeners and viewers to learn about their concerns their musical choices and their lives through a combination of humanistic and social scientific approaches Demonstrating how transformative cultural differences can become in intercultural encounters this book will appeal to students and scholars of musicology ethnomusicology and anthropology 21st Century Innovation in Music Education Kun Setyaning Astuti, Gary McPherson, Bambang Sugeng, Nila Kurniasari, Tutut Herawan, Christopher Drake, Ashadi, Endah Retnowati, Adi Cilik Pierewan, 2019-11-27 Music is an expression of feelings of the soul conveyed through the medium of sound But not all sounds are music It might be said that only an organised sound or series of sounds can be called music Thus music is connected to the eternal and constant flow and order of the universe to the laws and rhythms of nature It can also be said that musical order is comparable to the natural order of the universe There are laws of a certain nature in the natural sciences and likewise in music there are structures and procedures or even rules that should be followed to produce beautiful music The International Conference Innovations for 21st Century Music Education and Research provided a timely opportunity to take stock of the latest developments in music education and brought together educators researchers and members of the broader community in a welcoming forum in which they were able to express theoretical and practical views concepts research results and principles to help support the further development of music education
