Reconstructing Architecture Thomas A. Dutton, Lian Hurst Mann, 1996 Reconstructing Architecture was first published in 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions To create architecture is an inherently political act yet its nature as a social practice is often obscured beneath layers of wealth and privilege The contributors to this volume question architecture's complicity with the status quo moving beyond critique to outline the part architects are playing in building radical social movements and challenging dominant forms of power The making of architecture is instrumental in the construction of our identities our differences the world around us much of what we know of institutions the distribution of power social relations and cultural values is mediated by the built environment Historically architecture has constructed the environments that house the dominant culture Yet as the essays in Reconstructing Architecture demonstrate there exists a strong tradition of critical practice in the field one that attempts to alter existing social power relations Engaging the gap between modernism and postmodernism each chapter addresses an oppositional discourse that has developed within the field and then reconstructs it in terms of a new social project feminism social theory environmentalism cultural studies race and ethnic studies and critical theory The activists and scholars writing here provide a clarion call to architects and other producers of culture challenging them to renegotiate their political allegiances and to help reconstruct a viable democratic life in the face of inexorable forces driving economic growth destroying global ecology homogenizing culture and privatizing the public realm Reconstructing Architecture reformulates the role of architecture in society as well as its capacity to further a progressive social transformation Contributors Sherry Ahrentzen U of Wisconsin Milwaukee Bradford C Grant California Polytechnic State U San Luis Obispo Richard Ingersoll Rice U Margaret Soltan George Washington U Anthony Ward U of Auckland New Zealand Thomas A Dutton is an architect and professor of architecture at Miami University Ohio He is editor of Voices in Architectural Education 1991 and is associate editor of the Journal of Architectural Education Lian Hurst Mann is an architect and editor of Architecture California A founding member of the Labor Community Strategy Center in Los Angeles she is editor of its bilingual quarterly Ahora Now and a coauthor of Reconstructing Los Angeles from the Bottom Up 1993

An Introduction to Critical Management Research Mihaela L. Kelemen, Nick Rumens, 2008-09-17 This book offers a lively and readable account of how scholars and students might engage with some of the more unusual critical theories associated with the critical management research project Supported by a wealth of empirical and theoretical material this book will introduce readers to the complex issues surrounding how to carry out critical management research rather than simply providing prescriptive answers Heather H pfl University of Essex Kelemen and Rumens have done management scholars a great service in reviewing a huge amount of disparate knowledge and compressing it into a succinct lively and provocative book on the current state of Critical Management Studies This is a must read for those both inside and outside CMS Keith Grint Cranfield University Management is a critical term for contemporary politics but getting to grips with managerialism requires research methods that can deal with contemporary and controversial topics This book provides the tools for that project and will be invaluable for scholars and students who wish to challenge the conservatism of management academy at the present time Martin Parker University of Leicester Why have certain theories shaped management research Where do research theory and practice meet if at all To ask these questions is to think critically about management research Mihaela L Kelemen and Nick Rumens explore the fundamentals of critical management theory and their influences on management research and in doing so offer the student an illuminating introduction to what is often a disparate and complex array of issues 10 expressive chapters examine theoretical foundations including those most often sidelined in mainstream management theory from postmodernism and deconstruction to American pragmatism along with methodological choices and the intellectual issues each of these presents Also provided is a timely consideration to the consequences and ethical concerns now inherent to any research issue Sociological Abstracts Leo

P. Chall,2002 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Linguistic Anthropology Abani Malik,2025-01-03 Linguistic Anthropology Language and Culture delves into the fascinating interplay between language and culture We cover essential topics and chapters in an easy to understand manner making this book ideal for anyone looking to explore this unique field Linguistic anthropology plays a crucial role in modern business communication fostering innovation and development Our book covers advanced topics like paralinguistic communication digital marketing the origin of language orality and anthropology all presented in a structured and accessible format This comprehensive guide provides valuable insights into advanced communication techniques helping readers tackle various problems effectively Whether you re a student or a professional this book will enhance your knowledge and communication skills History as Destiny and History as Knowledge Bethwell A. Ogot,2005 Political Science

Abstracts ,1993-08-31 Political Science Abstracts is an annual supplement to the Political Science Government and Public Policy Series of The Universal Reference System which was first published in 1967 All back issues are still available

Education, Equity and Transformation in a Post-colonial World Australian and New Zealand Comparative and International Education Society. Conference,1997 Economic and Political Weekly ,1996 Innovators and Gravediggers Corey Dolgon,1994 Research as Resistance Leslie Allison Brown,Susan Strega,2005 This book brings together the theory and practice of anti oppressive approaches to social science research It is a work that will have a place in the classroom as well as on the desks of researchers in agencies governments and private consulting practice The first section of the book is devoted to the ontological and epistemological considerations involved in such research including theorizing the self of the researcher The second section of the book offers exemplars across a range of methodologies including institutional ethnography narrative autobiography storytelling and Indigenous research and participatory action research This is a unique text in that it describes both theoretical foundations and practical applications and because all of the featured researchers occupy marginalized locations It is also firmly anchored in the Canadian context Aesthetics in Feminist Perspective Hilde S. Hein, Carolyn Korsmeyer, 1993 A first rate introduction to the field accessible to scholars working from a variety of disciplinary and theoretical perspectives Highly recommended Choice offers both broad theoretical considerations and applications to specific art forms diverse methodological perspectives and healthy debate among the contributors an outstanding volume Philosophy and Literature this volume represents an eloquent and enlightened attempt to reconceptualize the field of aesthetic theory by encouraging its tendencies toward openness self reflexivity and plurality Discourse Society All of the authors challenge the traditional notion of a pure and disinterested observer that does not allow for questions of race ethnicity class sexual preference or gender Signs These essays examine the intellectual traditions of the philosophy of art and aesthetics Containing essays by scholars and by the writer Marilyn French the collection ranges from the history of aesthetic theory to philosophical reflection on fashion The contributions are unified by a sustained scrutiny of the nature of feminist feminine or female art creativity and interpretation Humanity & Society, 1997 Environment & Planning, 1995
