

Context Clues

When strong readers come to an unfamiliar word, they can use context clues to help them determine the meaning of the unknown word.

There are different types of context clues.

|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| I | Inference – the meaning is not given so you must use text clues                     | Don't want to work with Ricardo, unless you want to hear him talk about himself. He is so arrogant. |
| D | Definition – the meaning of the word is explained in the sentence                   | Ricardo is so arrogant. He thinks he is more important than everyone else.                          |
| E | Example – an example of the word is in the sentence or nearby sentences             | Ricardo is so arrogant. He is always bragging about how great he is at sports.                      |
| A | Antonym – a word with opposite meaning is used in the sentence or near by sentences | Ricardo is so arrogant. He needs to learn to be humble like his little brother Jose.                |
| S | Synonym – words with similar meaning are used in or near the sentence               | Ricardo is so arrogant, proud, self-centered, and over-bearing.                                     |

Strong readers will always read the sentences surrounding the unknown word to look for clues.
