

Morning

Every morning, Sarah would wake up to the sound of her alarm clock. She would stretch her arms and legs, then head to the bathroom to brush her teeth and wash her face. After getting dressed, Sarah would have a quick breakfast before catching the bus to school.

1) What would Sarah do when she woke up in the morning?

2) Where would Sarah go after getting dressed?

3) How would Sarah get to school?

Differentiated Nonfiction Reading, Grade 3 Debra J. Housel, 2010-04 Here's a way to teach the same grade level content to students with varying reading skills. The same information is written at three different levels: below grade level, at grade level, and above grade level. All the students in your class can read the passage and have the information they need to respond to the same six questions that evaluate their comprehension of the subject matter. The curriculum topics for science, geography, history, and language arts are correlated to the McREL standards and benchmarks. The reading levels of the passages are calculated according to the Flesch-Kincaid Readability Formula. Reading Comprehension, Grade 3
