Language, Power and Intercultural Communication Alexandru Praisler, 2023-02-26 This book mainly addresses academics and students specialising in translation studies as well as practitioners in the field including translators interpreters and subtitlers It examines the mechanisms and components which make intercultural communication work as well as the forces and actors which hinder it The book s translation translator oriented investigation of how power leaves imprints on the language s employed in communicating interculturality goes beyond the descriptive research method embarking upon an analytical one instead The case studies include Romanian political speech and filmic discourse with a political substratum provided with annotations of their associated translations into English In essence the volume considers multimodal translation as discourse and practice in close connection with the politics and policies governing them and under the dominance of the various contemporary media It thus broadens the scope of translation studies traditionally a linguistics oriented field adding reading grids advanced by cultural studies and critical discourse analysis A Targumist Interprets

the Torah: Contradictions and Coherence in Targum Pseudo-Jonathan Iosif J Zhakevich, 2022-01-17 This book conducts a focused study of contradictions and coherence in Targum Pseudo Jonathan The first section of this study examines the apparent disruption of congruity with regard to the vertical dimension of the Targum that is between the Torah the Hebrew Vorlage and the Targum the Aramaic translation The second section addresses the apparent disruption of congruity with regard to the horizontal dimension of the Targum that is within the boundaries of the TgPsJ corpus Ultimately this work suggests that the contradictions are given to resolution once the greater context of biblical and Jewish tradition is taken into consideration
