

How to use this Study Guide

The study guide is divided into four weeks. Each week is comprised of Homework (to be done before class) and Classroom Discussion. The Homework will always consist of vocabulary, chart work, the reading assignment, parent discussion questions, and comprehension questions. It is recommended for students to review the Classroom Discussion prior to coming to class so that they are prepared to participate in discussion. It is not necessary for them to know every answer to these questions, but simply to be thinking about them ahead of time. Charts are located in the back of the study guide. These are filled in throughout the weeks and turned in at the completion of the study guide. All other Homework is turned in weekly. Please pay attention to directions for charts and vocabulary each week, as they may not always be the same.

Week One begins with the Homework assignments. If you are introducing this guide in a classroom, it is recommended that you read through the cover information about the book and author (Note that the Book Background may contain spoilers), go over how to use this guide, and familiarize the class with the charts and Week One's assignment.

About the Author:

Born in Dublin, Ireland, in the year 1667, a few months after his father's passing, Jonathan Swift grew up as a sickly child. It is thought that he suffered from Meniere's disease, which causes dizziness, nausea, and hearing loss. Due to his father's death, his mother had trouble providing for Jonathan and traveled to relatives for help. She eventually settled for a while in Leicester, England, where Jonathan spent his early years. Eventually he returned to Ireland to live with an uncle. His uncle provided for him and allowed him an excellent education. It is reported that Jonathan did not excel in his studies, nor was he happy. Following grammar school, he entered Trinity College in Dublin at the age of fourteen. Four years later, he earned his degree and he hoped to continue his education. Political instability and lack of support from his uncle caused Jonathan to return to England to live with his mother. He acquired a job as a secretary to a retired diplomat, which familiarized him with the influential political figures of that time. Later, he entered Oxford University and earned his M.A. in 1692.

After graduation, Jonathan sought ordination as an Anglican priest and oversaw a small church in Northern Ireland for about a year before returning to his previous employment with the retired diplomat. He assisted in writing memoirs for the diplomat. Thus, he also began to pen his own manuscripts.

In 1700 he was named a Vicar to an area outside Dublin and furthered his education with a Doctor of Divinity from Trinity College in Dublin. In 1704, A Tale of the Tub, a satire on religion, was published. At this time, Jonathan also became an outspoken critic set on improving conditions in Ireland. He began to publish political pamphlets, articles, and essays while sharpening his writing skills using satire and irony.

Swift died in October of 1745. He composed his own epitaph, which is freely translated as:

*Swift sailed into his rest;
Savage indignation there
Cannot lacerate his breast.
Imitate him if you dare,
World-besotted traveller; he Served human liberty.*
