Hadith An Introduction Foundations Of Islam Jonathan Ac Brown:

Hadith Jonathan A.C. Brown, 2017-12-07 Contrary to popular opinion the bulk of Islamic law does not come from the Quran but from hadith first hand reports of the Prophet Muhammad's words and deeds passed from generation to generation. However with varying accounts often only committed to paper a century after the death of Muhammad Islamic scholars past and present have been faced with complex questions of historical authenticity. In this wide ranging introduction Jonathan A C Brown explores the collection and criticism of hadith and the controversy surrounding its role in modern Islam. This edition revised and updated with additional case studies and attention to the very latest scholarship also features a new chapter on how hadiths have been used politically both historically and in the Arab Spring and its aftermath. Informative and accessible it is perfectly suited to students scholars and general readers interested in this critical element of Islam. The Wiley

Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken, 2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification. This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al-Harith al-Muhāsibī who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abbāsids. Although al-Muh sib was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur'an Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al Muh sib's teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism

Powell,2024-08-27 Since the 9 11 terrorist attacks the largest

Protestant religious group in the United States the Southern Baptist denomination has been criticized for using and fostering anti Islamic rhetoric The use of anti Islamic speech specifically by Southern Baptist leaders has become an alarming trend within the denomination The effects of Southern Baptists antipathy towards Muslims are indeed dire Charles W Powell has observed that the Southern Baptist denomination is underprepared and at times reluctant to engage with Muslims in the United States His formal interviews with Southern Baptist pastors reveal that most pastors as well as their congregants have had no personal encounter with Muslims As a result this lack of encounter has created a deficiency of narrative empathy Southern Baptists and Muslims empirically investigates the dynamics of these patterns Powell proposes that this lack of narrative empathy is the primary reason why leaders within the Southern Baptist denomination have negative perceptions of Islam and Muslims Moreover it is primarily the lack of narrative empathy that allows for anti Islamic rhetoric to flourish The purpose of this book is to shape an improved if not new perception of Islam and Muslims a perception that can foster neighborliness via narrative empathy

The Making of Salafism Henri Lauzière, 2015-11-17 Some Islamic scholars hold that Salafism is an innovative and rationalist effort at Islamic reform that emerged in the late nineteenth century but gradually disappeared in the mid twentieth Others argue Salafism is an anti innovative and antirationalist movement of Islamic purism that dates back to the medieval period yet persists today Though they contradict each other both narratives are considered authoritative making it hard for outsiders to grasp the history of the ideology and its core beliefs Introducing a third empirically based genealogy The Making of Salafism understands the concept as a recent phenomenon projected back onto the past and it sees its purist evolution as a direct result of decolonization Henri Lauzière builds his history on the transnational networks of Taqi al Din al Hilali 1894-1987 a Moroccan Salafi who with his associates participated in the development of Salafism as both a term and a movement Traveling from Rabat to Mecca from Calcutta to Berlin al Hilali interacted with high profile Salafi scholars and activists who eventually abandoned Islamic modernism in favor of a more purist approach to Islam Today Salafis tend to claim a monopoly on religious truth and freely confront other Muslims on theological and legal issues Lauzière's pathbreaking history recognizes the social forces behind this purist turn uncovering the popular origins of what has become a global phenomenon

Islam and Blackness Jonathan A.C. Brown, 2022-11-03 It is commonly claimed that Islam is antiblack even inherently bent on enslaving Black Africans Western and African critics alike have contended that antiblack racism is in the faith's very scriptural foundations and its traditions of law spirituality and theology But what is the basis for this accusation Bestselling scholar Jonathan A C Brown examines Islamic scripture law Sufism and history to comprehensively interrogate this claim and determine how and why it emerged Locating its origins in conservative politics modern Afrocentrism and the old trope of Barbary enslavement he explains how antiblackness arose in the Islamic world and became entangled with normative tradition From the imagery of blackened faces in the Quran to Shariah assessments of Black women as undesirable and the assertion that Islam and Muslims are foreign to Africa this work provides an in depth study of the controversial knot that is Islam and Blackness and identifies authoritative voices in Islam's past that are crucial for combatting antiblack racism today

Narratives in Conflict Matthew Aaron Bennett, 2019-11-18 Did Jesus die on the cross for our sins as the Gospels describe Or as Muslims often contend was Jesus rescued to heaven in order to avoid the shameful crucifixion that would be unbefitting of a messenger of God This debate has raged for generations and has caused no shortage of frustration among those seeking to explain the central teaching of the Christian faith to those influenced by the Quran What this book aims to do is uncover four barriers to understanding the biblical teaching on atonement that likely exist in the minds of our Muslim friends prior to asking about the historical reality of the Christ event What we will discover is that the Quran diverges from the biblical teaching on atonement at the lexical ritual narrative and worldview levels Each of these points of divergence presents a barrier to communication Therefore before arguing with our Muslim friends that Jesus died on the cross we must provide an answer to the prior question why would it matter This book argues that the Letter to the Hebrews provides a particularly helpful biblical starting point for overcoming all four barriers

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies
