Henri Nouwen The Wounded Healer Ministry In:

The Wounded Healer Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2013-11-20 A radically fresh interpretation of how we can best serve others from the bestselling author of The Return of the Prodigal Son hailed as one of the world's greatest spiritual writers by Christianity Today In our own woundedness we can become a source of life for others In this hope filled and profoundly simple book Henri Nouwen inspires devoted men and women who want to be of service in their church or community but who have found traditional outreach alienating and ineffective Weaving keen cultural analysis with his psychological and religious insights Nouwen presents a balanced and creative theology of service that begins with the realization of fundamental woundedness in human nature According to Nouwen ministers are called to identify the suffering in their own hearts and make that recognition the starting point of their service Ministers must be willing to go beyond their professional somewhat aloof roles and leave themselves open as fellow human beings with the same wounds and suffering as those they serve In other words we heal from our wounds The Wounded Healer is a thoughtful and insightful guide that will be welcomed by anyone engaged in the service of others

God's Ambassadors E. Brooks Holifield, 2007-09-25 In God's Ambassadors E Brooks Holifield masterfully traces the history of America's Christian clergy from the seventeenth to the twenty first century analyzing the changes in practice and authority that have transformed the clerical profession Challenging one sided depictions of decline in clerical authority Holifield locates the complex story of the clergy within the context not only of changing theologies but also of transitions in American culture and society The result is a thorough social history of the profession that also takes seriously the theological presuppositions that have informed clerical activity With alternating chapters on Protestant and Catholic clergy the book permits sustained comparisons between the two dominant Christian traditions in American history At the same time God's Ambassadors depicts a vocation that has remained deeply ambivalent regarding the professional status marking the other traditional learned callings in the American workplace Changing expectations about clerical education as well as enduring theological questions have engendered a debate about the professional ideal that has distinguished the clerical vocation from such fields as law and medicine The American clergy from the past four centuries constitute a colorful diverse cast of characters who have in ways both obvious and obscure helped to shape the tone of American culture For a well rounded narrative of their story told by a master historian God's Ambassadors is the book to read

Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy: Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaning their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doehring Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University August 2016

Pyne, Joni Grace Powers, 2007-09-04 Life with God is a huge gulp of fresh air Our existence as children of God should reflect unending unbounded delight in the infinite glory of our Father Too often this is not the case in our lives as we stagger far from God's expansive vision But hope reigns God has promised abundant life brightly illuminated with His glory In LifeSpace Joni Powers and Bob Pyne write for all who want to experience anew the life giving breath of the Creator They encourage readers to embrace the gift of expansive life that God is offering to each of us This is only realized they explain as we properly understand the person of God our relationship with Him and the radical freedom of grace This visionary book is a life altering call to a way of being that results in transformation with every breath Come and join the conversation with those seeking lives that delight in God a place of transcendent rest and a limitless horizon of possibility A Tale of Two Churches Troy D. Ehlke, 2012-03-20 A Tale of Two Churches examines the complexities of resurrecting a congregation postmortem While conflict is a natural occurrence in all communities it can lead to organizational implosion The warning signs become blaring sirens when mistrust goes viral rumors escalate uncontrolled and the people discontinue their participation Pastor Ehlke attempts to generate new life in the corpse of a dying church through means of spiritual transformation Using the Scripture as a guidepost for reform the pastor starts a small group designed for the sole purpose of loving the people Trusting this will spark a revolution of compassion the leadership embarks on breathing new life into a community declared all but dead by many in observance Having worked at St John Lutheran Church in Winter Park perhaps this paradigm will breathe life into other faith communities who are staring into the darkness of death The Gravity of Joy Angela Williams Gorrell, 2021-03-09 My vocation was supposed to be joy and I was speaking at funerals Shortly after being hired by Yale University to study joy Angela Gorrell got word that a close family member had died by suicide Less than a month later she lost her father to a fatal opioid addiction and her nephew only twenty two years old to sudden cardiac arrest The theoretical joy she was researching at Yale suddenly felt shallow and distant completely unattainable in the fog of grief she now found herself in But joy was closer at hand than it seemed As she began volunteering at a women's maximum security prison she met people who suffered extensively yet still showed a tremendous capacity for joy Talking with these women many of whom had struggled with addiction and suicidal thoughts themselves she realized Joy doesn't obliterate grief Instead joy has a mysterious capacity to be felt alongside sorrow and even sometimes most especially in the midst of suffering This is the story of Angela's discovery of an authentic grounded Christian joy But even more it is an invitation for others to seize upon this more resilient joy as a counteragent to the twenty first century epidemics of despair addiction and suicide a call to action for communities that yearn to find joy and are willing to walk together through the shadows to find it A New Old Spirituality? Tone Stangeland Kaufman, 2017-07-11 How do pastors live their spiritual lives both as private persons and as professionals How can their spirituality be characterized and understood Drawing on in depth interviews with Norwegian clergy as well as literature from the fields of Christian spirituality practical theology congregational studies and the sociology of religion this book offers a nuanced understanding of clergy spirituality Tone Stangeland Kaufman identifies three locations and sources of spiritual nurture for pastors the ministry itself vocational spirituality daily life everyday spirituality and spiritual practices located at the margins of daily life intentional spirituality The participants in this study engage in classic Christian practices yet approach them in a subjective and new way that also potentially revitalizes their spiritual lives Hence the author makes the case that their spirituality can aptly be described as a new old spirituality The book also seeks to nuance Paul Heelas's and Linda Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution claim and thus engages in the broader spirituality vs religion discourse A New Old Spirituality is an exciting example of how qualitative empirical research can be used in creative ways to make a practical theological argument It is a book for scholars students and practitioners A Perichoretic Pastoral Theology Jim Horsthuis, 2022-09-08 This book articulates a perichoretic pastoral theology offering a pastoral theological response to the question of how ministering persons practice ministry in communion with the triune God Key elements from contemporary pastoral theology theologies of human experience concern for human suffering and situational attentiveness are drawn into conversation with the doctrine of perichoresis Jim Horsthuis provides a vision for life and ministry in relational participational and spiritual communion with the Father Son and Holy Spirit The chapters explore four spiritual movements that foster this vision 1 the move from experience to relationship 2 the move from concern to presence 3 the move from competence to communion and 4 the move from practice to prayer The book represents a unique academic contribution to both pastoral theology and Trinitarian theology Care-full Preaching G. Lee Ramsey Jr., 2012-03-15 In Care-full Preaching G Lee Ramsey Jr offers a new vision for how sermons can energize all members of a congregation to care for one another Using fresh images and sermons from Fred Craddock James Forbes Gina Stewart Barbara Brown Taylor and himself Ramsey demonstrates in practical ways how sermons can create a caring community Healing This Wounded Earth Eleanor Stoneham, 2011-03-16 The world is seriously wounded threatened by violence egocentricity and mass consumerism Government intervention alone will never solve society's problems We need personal responsibility and healing on a global scale This carefully researched book skillfully weaves science and spirituality with philosophy and ancient wisdom using potent imagery of the Wounded Healer embodied in the life of Jesus Christ the story of the healing centaur Chiron and the work of the indigenous shaman Through suffering his own physical and mental wounds the Wounded Healer acquires a special empathy for recognizing and healing the wounds of others This book is full of hope as it speaks to a palpable global shift towards holistic and spiritual values Through the healing needs of relationship our economy our environment and the living Gaia and finally the curing professions of pastoral and medical care it shows how we may all become catalysts for social change for a happier and more peaceful world ChristianityNext Winter 2018: Negotiating Difference Young Lee Hertig, 2018-01-18 An interdisciplinary scholarly exploration of Asian North American Christianity ChristianityNext is a
