Peter M Boenisch, 2015-08-01 As European theatre directors become a familiar presence on international stages and a new generation of theatre makers absorbs their impulses this study develops fresh perspectives on Regie the Continental European tradition of staging playtexts Leaving behind unhelpful clichés that pit above all the director against the playwright Peter M Boenisch stages playful encounters between Continental theatre and Continental philosophy The contemporary Regie work of Thomas Ostermeier Frank Castorf Ivo van Hove Guy Cassiers tg STAN and others here meets the works of Friedrich Schiller and Leopold Jessner Hegelian speculative dialectics and the critical philosophy of Jacques Rancière and Slavoj Žižek in order to explore the thinking of Regie how to think Regie and how Regie thinks This partial and sideways look invites a wider reconsideration of the potential of playing theatre today of its aesthetic possibilities and its political stakes in the global neoliberal economy of the twenty first century De literatuurmuur Ilse Bolscher, Mirjam Tuinder, 1999 Selectie van lessuggesties en artikelen uit Moer over het werken met literatuur in het voortgezet onderwijs Ageing, Gender, and Illness in Anglophone Literature Heike Hartung, 2015-12-07 This study establishes age as a category of literary history delineating age in its interaction with gender and narrative genre Based on the historical premise that the view of ageing as a burden emerges as a specific narrative in the late eighteenth century the study highlights how the changing experience of ageing is shaped by that of gender By reading the Bildungsroman as a coming of age novel the book asks how the telling of a life in time affects individual age narratives Bringing together the different perspectives of age and disability studies the book argues that illness is already an important issue in the Bildungsroman's narratives of ageing This theoretical stance provides new interpretations of canonical novels visiting authors such as Johann Wolfgang Goethe Frances Burney Maria Edgeworth Jane Austen Charles Dickens George Eliot Samuel Beckett and Jonathan Franzen Drawing on the link between age and illness in the Bildungsroman's age narratives the genre of dementia narrative is presented as one of the directions which the Bildungsroman takes after its classical period Applying these theoretical perspectives to canonical novels of the nineteenth century and to the new genre of dementia narrative the volume also provides new insights into literary and genre history This book introduces a new theoretical approach to cultural age studies and offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology literary theory gender and age studies Women Screenwriters Jill Neldes, Julie Selbo, 2015-09-29 Women Screenwriters is a study of more than 300 female writers from 60 nations from the first film scenarios produced in 1896 to the present day Divided into six sections by continent the entries give an overview of the history of women screenwriters in each country as well as individual biographies of its most influential Hersenschimmen, J. The Poetics and Politics of Alzheimer's Disease Life-Writing Martina Zimmermann, 2017-06-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This is the first book length exploration of the thoughts and experiences expressed by dementia patients in published narratives over the last thirty years It contrasts third person caregiver and first person patient accounts from different languages and a range of media focusing on the poetical and political questions these narratives raise what images do narrators appropriate what narrative plot do they adapt and how do they draw on established strategies of life writing It also analyses how these accounts engage with the culturally dominant Alzheimer s narrative that centres on dependence and vulnerability and addresses how they relate to discourses of gender and aging Linking literary scholarship to the medico scientific understanding of dementia as a neurodegenerative condition this book argues that first patients articulations must be made central to dementia discourse and second committed alleviation of caregiver burden through social support systems and altered healthcare policies requires significantly altered views about aging dementia and Alzheimer s patients
