illustrate some of the novel aspirations meanings and relationships arising with India's media economy Tourism in India
Prof K Vijaya Babu, Jayaprakash Narayana Gade, 2014-03-12 The tourism industry of India is economically important and growing rapidly. The World Travel Tourism Council calculated that tourism generated 6.4 trillion or 6.6% of the nation's GDP in 2012. It supported 39.5 million jobs, 7.7% of its total employment. The sector is predicted to grow at an average annual rate of 7.9% from 2013 to 2023. This gives India the third rank among countries with the fastest growing tourism industries over the next decade. India has a large medical tourism sector which is expected to grow at an estimated rate of 30% annually to reach about 95 billion by 2015. According to provisional statistics, 6.29 million foreign tourists arrived in India in 2011, an increase of 8.9% from 5.78 million in 2010. This ranks India as the 38th country in the world in terms of foreign tourist arrivals. Domestic tourist visits to all states and Union Territories numbered 1.036.35 million in 2012, an increase of 16.5% from 2011. The most represented countries are the United States 16% and the United Kingdom 12.6%. In 2011, Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, and Delhi were the most popular states for foreign tourists. Domestic tourists visited the states Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, and Tamil Nadu most frequently. Chennai, Delhi, Mumbai, and Agra have been the four most visited cities of India by foreign tourists during the year 2011. Worldwide, Chennai ranked 41 by the number of foreign tourists, while Delhi is ranked at 50, Mumbai at 57, and Agra at 65, and Kolkata at 99. The Travel Tourism Competitiveness Report 2013 ranks India 65th out of 144 countries overall. The report ranks the price competitiveness of India's tourism sector 20th out of 144 countries. It mentions that India has quite good air transport, ranked 39th, particularly given the country's stage of development, and reasonable ground transport infrastructure, ranked 42nd. Some other aspects of its tourism infrastructure remain somewhat underdeveloped, however. The nation has very few hotel rooms per capita by international comparison and low ATM penetration. As per the UNWTO World Tourism Barometer, December 2013, India's rank in the World Tourism Receipts during 2012 was 16th, and rank in international tourist arrivals was 41. The rank of India was 7th among Asia and the Pacific Region in terms of tourism receipts during 2012. The Ministry of Tourism designs national policies for the development and promotion of tourism. In the process, the Ministry consults and collaborates with other stakeholders in the sector, including various Central Ministries, agencies, State Governments, Union Territories, and the representatives of the private sector. Concerted efforts are being made to promote new forms of tourism, such as rural, cruise, medical, and eco-tourism. The Ministry also maintains the Incredible India campaign. India's rich history and its cultural and geographical diversity make its international tourism appeal large and diverse. It presents heritage and cultural tourism along with medical, business, educational, and sports tourism. Therefore, the practitioners, academicians, and researchers need to meticulously review these aspects and acquaint them with knowledge to sustain in such scenarios. Thus, these evident scenarios emphasize the need of a broad-based research in the field of Tourism in India. This book is an attempt in that direction. I sincerely hope that this book will provide insights into the subject to faculty members, researchers, and students from the Tourism institutes.
