Historical Theology In-Depth David Beale,2013 A closer look at the major theological developments in Christian history Provided by publisher Historical Theology William Cunningham,2012 Corporeal Theology Tobias Tanton,2023 Corporeal Theology brings theology into conversation with the area of cognitive science research known as embodied cognition which considers the way in which human thinking is shaped by the kinds of bodies we have and the way they navigate their environment proposing that Christian religious ideas are adapted to embodied ways of thinking Does God Love All or Some? Ronnie W. Rogers,2019-04-19 The term extensivism describes my position regarding the doctrine of salvation Specifically extensivism believes that man was created in the image of God with otherwise choice God s salvation plan involves an all inclusive unconditional offer of salvation to every person reception of which is conditioned upon grace enabled faith rather than Calvinism s exclusive plan of a limited actual offer of salvation to only the unconditionally elected Generally it replaces the term non Calvinism These are the five primary objectives of the book First my considerations would result in a deeper understanding of God Second I will demonstrate that God salvationally loves every single person Third I intend to offer a precise and respectful critique of Calvinism s internal and biblical inconsistencies these are largely due to its commitment to compatibilism and unconditional election Fourth I will demonstrate that God s free choice to endow man with libertarian freedom is a more biblical perspective Fifth because a significant percentage of people who become Calvinists do not actually understand Calvinism I seek to present Calvinism and extensivism in language that is precisely and consistently reflective of the commitments of each perspective regarding God s sovereignty salvific love foreknowledge and man s freedom this so a person can make an informed choice about Calvinism Readings in Historical Theology Robert F.
