The Encyclopedia of Aging Richard Schulz, 2006 Print CourseSmart The Developing Person Through Childhood, Fifth Edition Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2002-10-15 New edition of Berger's acclaimed bestselling text for chronologically organized courses focus strictly on the childhood years Handbook of Child Psychology, 1998 Making Human Beings Human Urie Bronfenbrenner, 2005 Making Human Beings Human Bioecological Perspectives on Human Development is a landmark collection that traces and summarizes Urie Bronfenbrenner's thoughts on the bioecological theory of human development and recommends avenues for future research The majority of the twenty three retrospective articles were written by Bronfenbrenner while some were written with colleagues in his own or related fields over the course of six decades The book's articles document the domain of inquiry that has emerged gradually over many years and has now acquired a title of its own the bioecological theory of human development Making Human Beings Human is a culminating work by a prominent figure in the field of human development and will help to shape the future of the field Handbook of Competence and Motivation, First Edition Andrew J. Elliot, Carol S. Dweck, 2013-10-15 This important handbook provides a comprehensive authoritative review of achievement motivation and establishes the concept of competence as an organizing framework for the field The editors synthesize diverse perspectives on why and how individuals are motivated in school work sports and other settings Written by leading investigators chapters reexamine central constructs in achievement motivation explore the impact of developmental contextual and sociocultural factors and analyze the role of self regulatory processes Focusing on the ways in which achievement is motivated by the desire to experience competence and avoid experiencing incompetence the volume integrates disparate theories and findings and sets forth a coherent agenda for future research Handbook of child psychology William Damon, K. Ann Renninger, Richard M. Lerner, Irving E. Sigel, 2006 This book is part of a 4 volume set that reflects current understanding of child psychology Focusing on the concerns of a new century and now in its 6th edition the series is the definitive child psychologist's guide and reference work The Heredity Hoax Richard M. Lerner, Gary Greenberg, 2025-01-30 This innovative and thought provoking book integrates both new authored material and reprints of existing literature that together provide a compelling narrative that reveals the fatally flawed science associated with genetic reductionist accounts of human behavior and development Through an interdisciplinary lens it illuminates the dynamic nature of human development empowering readers to question established notions and embrace the complexity of our potential Across the book the work of top tier scientists from developmental comparative educational and biological science illuminates theory and research converging on the conclusion that the multiple egregiously flawed work of genetic reductionists should be expunged from research pertinent to human development The book challenges the prevailing reductionist narratives and their application to social policies programs and uses in media Theoretically based and empirically rigorous this multidisciplinary approach to human development will shine a light on the inequities in individuals or groups that suggest that specific genes do not enable them to succeed in life The Heredity Hoax invites graduate programs and advanced undergraduate courses on human development human potential epigenetics and more to delve into the intricate interplay between genes environment and personal growth This will also serve as an unimpeachable source of evidence for researchers educators and social policymakers
