Tully,2024-11-21 This multidisciplinary volume examines the ongoing effects of James G Frazer s The Golden Bough in modern Humanities and its wide ranging influence across studies of ancient religions literature historiography and reception studies The book begins by exploring the life and times of Frazer himself and the writing of The Golden Bough in its cultural milieu. It then goes on to cover a wide range of topics including ancient Near Eastern religion and culture, Minoan religion and in particular the origins of notions of Minoan matriarchy, Frazer's influence on the study of Graeco-Roman religion and magic, Frazer's influence on modern Pagan religions and the effects of Frazer's works in modern culture and scholarship generally. Chapters examine how modern academia and beyond continues to be influenced by the otherwise discredited theories in The Golden Bough, ideas such as Sacred Marriage and the incessant Fertility of Everything. The book demonstrates how scholarship within the Humanities as well as practitioners of alternative religions and the common public remain under the thrall of Frazer over one hundred years since the publication of the abridged edition of The Golden Bough and what we must do to shake off that influence. A Century of James Frazer's The Golden Bough is of interest to scholars and students from a wide range of disciplines including Ancient History, History of Religion, Comparative Religion, Classical Studies, Archaeology, Historiography, Anthropology, Folklore and Reception Studies. Western Esotericism and Rituals of Initiation Henrik Bogdan, 2012-02-01

For more than three hundred years the practice of Masonic rituals of initiation has been part of Western culture spreading far beyond the boundaries of traditional Freemasonry. Henrik Bogdan explores the historical development of these rituals and their relationship with Western esotericism. Beginning with the Craft degrees of Freemasonry, the blueprints as it were of all later Masonic rituals of initiation, Bogdan examines the development of the Masonic High Degrees, the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn, the most influential of all nineteenth-century occultist initiatory societies, and Gerald Gardner's Witchcraft movement of the 1950s, one of the first large-scale Western esoteric New Religions Movements.

The practices of magic and contemporary myth-making in relation to landscape performance and writing. From Magic and Myth-Work to Care and Repair is a two-part book bringing together fourteen essays broadly concerned with the fiction of the self and with practices and explorations beyond that fiction. Each part of the book approaches this theme from a different angle. The first part, entitled On Magic and Myth-Work, deals with practices of transformation and with contemporary myth-making in relation to landscape performance and writing. The second part, On Care and Repair, gathers together essays that are more personal but that also look to various technologies or devices of self-care alongside ideas of collaboration and the collective. Crucial throughout this exploration are questions of agency and self narration but also how these connect to larger issues around historical trauma neoliberalism and ecological crisis The essays reference many other texts and fellow travellers and also draw on the author's own experiences and teaching within various art and theory worlds as well as with performance magical practices gaming and Buddhism

Romanticism and Popular Magic Stephanie Elizabeth Churms, 2019-01-16 This book explores how Romanticism was shaped by practices of popular magic It seeks to identify the place of occult activity and culture in the form of curses spells future telling charms and protective talismans in everyday life together with the ways in which such practice figures and is refigured in literary and political discourse at a time of revolutionary upheaval What emerges is a new perspective on literature's material contexts in the 1790s from the rhetorical linguistic and visual jugglery of the revolution controversy to John Thelwall's occult turn during a period of autobiographical self reinvention at the end of the decade From Wordsworth's deployment of popular magic as a socially and politically emancipatory agent in Lyrical Ballads to Coleridge's anxious engagement with superstition as a despotic system of mental enslavement and Robert Southey's wrestling with an increasingly alluring conservatism he associated with a reliance on ultimately incarcerating systems of superstition
