High Rise Ballard:

High-Rise: A Novel J. G. Ballard, 2012-04-16 Class war erupts in a luxurious high rise apartment building High-Rise Mike Bonsall, 2014-02-09 With its forty floors and thousand apartments its supermarket and swimming pools bank and junior school all in effect abandoned in the sky the high rise offered more than enough opportunities for violence and confrontation JG Ballard High Rise Ballard was always an intensely visual writer and in the novel High Rise he gave detailed descriptions of the tower block itself and the floor locations of nearly a hundred residents Using Google SketchUp I created my own vision of the tower block and all of the residents whose floors are mentioned See the video version and my other Ballard inspired work here <http://fentonville.co.uk/digitalballard>

Ozga-Lawn,2020-12-21 This book explores the shared qualities of mountains as naturally formed landscapes and of megastructures as manmade landscapes seeking to unravel how each can be understood as an open system of complex network relationships human natural and artificial By looking at mountains and megastructures in an interchangeable way the book negotiates the fixed boundaries of natural and artificial worlds to suggest a more complex relationship between landscape and architecture It suggests an ecological understanding of the interconnectedness of architecture and landscape and an entangled network of relations Urban colonialist fictional rural and historical landscapes are interwoven into this fabric that also involves discontinuities tensions and conflicts as parts of a system that is never linear but rather fluid and organic as driven by human endeavor Meanjin Vol 76, No 3 Meanjin Quarterly,2017-09-18 In these strange times the era of President Donald Trump and the constant contest between truth and political expedience what is the responsibility of the intellectual of the thinker To sit on their hands Or speak out and risk controversy and rebuke Renowned philosopher and public intellectual Raimond Gaita wrestles with this big issue in the spring edition of Meanjin and the result is a major essay Truth In The Time Of Trump In the same edition Katharine Murphy considers the trend toward public disengagement with politics while Guy Rundle fills notebook after notebook as France and Britain go to the polls Elsewhere Anson Cameron celebrates the last days of Melbourne s somewhat notorious Gatwick Hotel Scott Stephens charts the socially and morally destructive rise of inequality Robyn Annear fears for a future with nothing but digital records Eleanor Robertson ponders the many meanings of intersectionality Elle Hardy reports on urban America s war with prescription painkillers Damon Young confronts The Punisher s numb rage Steve Dow surveys the parlous state of local TV production and from the Meanjin vaults Miles Franklin considers the work of Henry Lawson There s new fiction from Michael Mohammed Ahmad Liana Skrzypczak Paul Shields and Anthony Lynch and a brace of fresh poetry and memoir Fear the Future Matthew Benjamin Cole,2025-08-21 After centuries of contemplating utopias late nineteenth and early twentieth century writers began to warn of dystopian futures Yet these fears extended beyond the canonical texts of dystopian fiction into postwar discourses on totalitarianism mass society and technology as well as subsequent political theories of freedom and domination Fear the Future demonstrates the centrality of dystopian thinking to twentieth century political thought showing the pervasiveness of dystopian images themes and anxieties Offering a novel reading of major themes and thinkers Fear the Future explores visions of the future from literary figures such as Yevgeny Zamyatin Aldous Huxley and George Orwell political theorists such as Max Weber Hannah Arendt Herbert Marcuse J rgen Habermas and Michel Foucault and mid century social scientists such as Erich Fromm Max Horkheimer Theodor Adorno David Reisman C Wright Mills and Jacques Ellul It offers a comparative analysis of distinct intellectual and literary traditions including modern utopianism and anti utopianism midcentury social science Frankfurt School critical theory and continental political philosophy With detailed case studies of key thinkers from the Enlightenment to the late twentieth century the book synthesizes secondary literature and research from a range of disciplinary areas including in political theory intellectual history literary studies and utopian studies This wide ranging reconstruction shows that while dystopian thinking has illustrated the dangers of domination and dehumanization it has also illuminated new possibilities for freedom Apocalyptic Discourse in Contemporary Culture Monica Germana, Aris Mousoutzanis, 2014-09-15 This interdisciplinary collection of essays focuses on critical and theoretical responses to the apocalypse of the late twentieth and early twenty first century cultural production Examining the ways in which apocalyptic discourses have had an impact on how we read the world's globalised space the traumatic burden of history and the mutual relationship between language and eschatological belief fifteen original essays by a group of internationally established and emerging critics reflect on the apocalypse its past tradition pervasive present and future legacy The collection seeks to offer a new reading of the apocalypse understood as a complex and frequently paradoxical paradigm of contemporary Western culture The majority of published collections on the subject have been published prior to the year 2000 and in their majority of cases locate the apocalypse in the future and envision it as something imminent This collection offers a post millennial perspective that perceives the end as immanent and simultaneously rooted in the past tradition Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher, 2020 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself Focus On: 100 Most Popular Films Based on British Novels Wikipedia contributors, Spatial Politics in Contemporary London Literature Laura Colombino, 2013-06-19 This book analyses the spatial politics of a range of British novelists writing on London since the 1950s emphasizing spatial representation as an embodied practice at the point where the architectural landscape and the body enter into relation with each other Colombino visits the city in connection with its boundaries abstract spaces and natural microcosms as they stand in for all the conflicting realms of identity its interstices and ruins are seen as inhabited by bodies that reproduce internally the external conditions of political and social struggle The study brings into focus the fiction in which London provides not a residual interest but a strong psychic phenomenological grounding and where the awareness of the physical reality of buildings and landscape conditions shape the concept of the subject traversing this space Authors such as J G Ballard Geoff Dyer Michael Moorcock Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair Geoff Ryman Tom McCarthy Michael Bracewell and Zadie Smith are considered in order to map the relationship of body architecture and spatial politics in contemporary creative prose on the city Through readings that are consistently informed by recent developments in urban studies and reflections formulated by architects sociologists anthropologists and art critics this book offers a substantial contribution to the burgeoning field of literary urban studies Weird Tales 353 Ann VanderMee, 2013-08-16 Weird Tales 353 presents a selection of fine stories by modern writers including Paul Tremplay and Robert Davies plus features by Kenneth Hite Lost in Lovecraft Jason Heller The Greatest Poison Amanda Gannon The Bazaar and more Plus an interview with horror legends Thomas Ligotti and artist Richard Corbin The Encyclopedia of

Duff, 2014-12-03 Looking at writers such as Will Self Hani Kureishi JG Ballard and Iain Sinclair Kim Duff's new book examines contemporary British literature and its depiction of the city after the time of Thatcher and mass privatization This lively study is an important and engaging work for students and scholars alike Everything Must Go Dorian Lynskey, 2025-01-28 A rich captivating and darkly humorous look into the evolution of apocalyptic thought exploring how film and literature interact with developments in science politics and culture and what factors drive our perennial obsession with the end of the world As Dorian Lynskey writes People have been contemplating the end of the world for millennia In this immersive and compelling cultural history Lynskey reveals how religious prophecies of the apocalypse were secularized in the early 19th century by Lord Byron and Mary Shelley in a time of dramatic social upheaval and temporary climate change inciting a long tradition of visions of the end without gods With a discerning eye and acerbic wit Lynskey examines how various doomsday tropes and predictions in literature art music and film have arisen from contemporary anxieties whether they be comets pandemics world wars the Cuban Missile Crisis Y2K or the climate emergency Far from being grim Lynskey guides readers through a rich array of fascinating stories and surprising facts allowing us to keep company with celebrated works of art and the people who made them from H G Wells Jack London W B Yeats and J G Ballard to The Twilight Zone Dr Strangelove Mad Max and The Terminator Prescient and original Everything Must Go is a brilliant sweeping work of history that provides many astute insights for our times and speaks to our urgent concerns for the future Notes on Trumpspace David Markus, 2023 In the wake of the 2016 U S Presidential election considerable ink was spilled on the architecture and interior design of the buildings owned and inhabited by Donald J Trump In an effort to understand the inner workings of America's first real estate mogul in chief commentators remarked on everything from the president's fastidious taste in window dressings to the exaggerated floor counts boasted by many Trump branded towers Notes on Trumpspace takes this discursive trend as a point of departure It examines not only key examples of Trumpitecture but also works of film fiction and contemporary art that center on or otherwise illuminate the psychogeography of super luxury real estate Engaging closely with current political debates the book takes a critical approach to mainstream liberal reactions to the Trump presidency It argues that the fascination and horror Trump has provoked is owing in part to the way he lays bare the obsession with status self branding and achievement at any cost that has been part and parcel of the broader neoliberal ethos Finally it analyzes the January 6 2021 storming of the US Capitol through the lens of spatio political theorizations of settler colonial power and conceptions of home and homeland A genre defying work of political and aesthetic inquiry Notes on Trumpspace is a sustained investigation into the relationship between the built environment late capitalist fantasy and national identity It asks what it means for current and future understandings of home and dwelling that this era s most notorious peddler of high end real estate succeeded in peddling his way into the White House in 2016
