with The Rough Guide to Dubai Now available in ePub format Middle East Review ,1988 The Parcel Anosh Irani,2016-09-06 Finalist for the Writers Trust Fiction Prize and for the Governor General's Literary Award this powerful new work about a transgender sex worker in the red light district of Bombay who is given an unexpected task is a gripping literary page turner difficult and moving surprising and tender Anosh Irani's best novel yet and his first with Knopf Canada

The Parcel's astonishing heart soul and unforgettable voice is Madhu born a boy but a eunuch by choice who has spent most of her life in a close knit clan of transgender sex workers in Kamathipura the notorious red light district of Bombay Madhu identifies herself as a hijra a person belonging to the third sex neither here nor there man nor woman Now at 40 she has moved away from prostitution her trade since her teens and is forced to beg to support the charismatic head of the hijra clan Gurumai One day Madhu receives a call from Padma Madam the most feared brothel owner in the district a parcel has arrived a young girl from the provinces betrayed and trafficked by her aunt and Madhu must prepare it for its fate Despite Madhu's reluctance she is forced to take the job by Gurumai As Madhu's emotions spiral out of control her past comes back to haunt her threatening to unravel a lifetime's work and identity This is a dark devastating but ultimately redemptive novel that promises to be one of the most talked about publications of the year The Rough Guide to Jordan Matthew Teller,Rough Guides,2009-09-01 The Rough Guide to Jordan is the essential guide to the Middle East's most enticing destination Detailed accounts of the best attractions Jordan has to offer along with the clearest Jordan maps and plans lift the lid on this fascinatingly diverse country With expert advice and background explore the world wonder that is Petra an ancient city carved from rose red mountain cliffs roam the sands of Wadi Rum in the footsteps of Lawrence of Arabia and then relax on golden beaches at Aqaba Jordan's beautiful Red Sea resort hideaway You'll find detailed guidance on getting the best out of a visit to Amman the buzzing Jordanian capital as well as Crusader castles and stunningly well preserved Roman cities Float your cares away on the Dead Sea the lowest point on Earth or take in spectacular views over the Dana biosphere reserve At every point the Rough Guide steers you in the right direction to find the best hotels in Jordan recommended Jordan restaurants cafes and shops across every price range giving you clear balanced reviews and honest first hand opinions Explore all corners of Jordan with authoritative background on Jordan's culture and history the clearest maps of any guide and practical language tips Make the most of your holiday with The Rough Guide to Jordan The Middle East Unveiled Donna Marsh,2011-06-01 Why did Mr Abdul Rahman Hassan seem uncomfortable when I asked him if his Christian name was Abdul A Many organisations new to the Middle East become very successful many more struggle and some will fail altogether Often the difference between a successful organisation and one that fails is that organisation's level of cultural intelligence Cultural intelligence has never been more important as businesses globalise especially in parts of the world that are very different to markets in the West Cultural and social mistakes can cost businesses dearly Learning how to do business in the Middle East without causing offence is crucial This book provides cultural and practical business intelligence for all Western business people working throughout the Middle East It also focuses on issues specifically important to Western businesswomen as well as for men who might be working with Arab and Muslim women It can make the difference between success and failure for the reader and his or her organisation Migration, Jihad, and Muslim Authority in West Africa John H. Hanson, 1996-10-22 John H Hanson's pathbreaking study revises late nineteenth century colonialist assumptions about a West African Muslim social movement Using indigenous Arabic manuscripts travel narratives and oral materials Hanson assesses the meaning of a series of revolts against Islamic authority The book investigates three political crises that took place at Nioro a town in the region of Karta in the upper Senegal River valley conquered during a military jihad or holy war by Shaykh Umar Tal Although Umar and his successors steadfastly promoted jihad Futanke colonists defying their leaders opted to remain settled on the lands they had seized instead of going to war the colonists devoted themselves to production of foodstuffs for sale in an increasingly vital regional economy Incisive analysis of charismatic authority and its limits as demonstrated by Umar and his son Amadu Sheku illuminates patterns in the unfolding relations between leaders and followers

Challenging Cosmopolitanism Joshua Gedacht, 2018-09-30 Contextualizes the refugee crisis through a historical study of Muslim mobility and violence Cosmopolitanism has emerged as a key category in Islamic Studies defining models of Muslim mobility pluralism and tolerance that challenge popular perceptions of religious extremism Such celebrations and valorisations of mobility and trans regional consciousness however tend to conflate border crossing with opportunity and social diversity with ethical progress At the same time they generally disregard the ways in which such forms of cosmopolitanism have been entwined with structures of domination economic control and violence This volume addresses these issues in ways that help to contextualize contemporary issues such as the global refugee crisis in relation to longer histories of Muslim mobility and coercion Featuring new historical and ethnographic research on China and Southeast Asia this book explores how power and violence have shaped the experiences of Sufis and state builders as well as refugees and rebels contributing to a more nuanced understanding of Islamic cosmopolitanism Open access chapters

Muslim Mobilities, 2024-12-30 A translocal ethnography about Tajik migrants engagement in projects of reform Islamic life in Dubai the book maps Gulf migration onto larger geographies of Muslim mobility piety and belonging across places in Eurasia the Gulf and wider Middle East Spatializing the intersection of migration work and Muslim piety the book examines how formations of ethical subjectivity are closely tied to the multiple places that shape migrants travel itineraries and related experiences of dwelling there and crossing them Situating these spatial biographies in broader transregional fields of Muslim mobility connectedness and placemaking the book explores why in the early 2000s young Tajik Muslims pursued spiritual social and moral progress in the booming religious economy of Dubai's fur coat business sector The book's spatial approach works threefold With a focus on abroad it interrogates the interplay of spatial perceptions of the good elsewhere with migrants placemaking there A second focus is on how multiplicity and flexibility of migrant situatedness spatially temporally socially in Persianate Russophone and Arab culturescapes shape mobile pious subjectivities and cosmopolitan belongings The book also develops a situated Tajik perspective on Gulf migration that grounds in circulating spatial imaginaries Muslim knowledge repertoires as well as in individual travel modes paths and migrant experiences resulting from precarious livelihoods and discriminating migrant regimes Linking anthropology with new area studies approaches this book seeks to enhance multidisciplinary scholarship about the complex relation between religion migration and mobile subjectivity in both Central Asian and Gulf studies and in the anthropology of Islam

20 Years of HIV in Bangladesh, 2009 Queer Korea Todd A. Henry, 2020-02-21 Since the end of the nineteenth century the Korean people have faced successive waves of foreign domination authoritarian regimes forced dispersal and divided development Throughout these turbulent times queer Koreans were ignored minimized and erased in narratives of their modern nation East Asia and the wider world This interdisciplinary volume challenges such marginalization through critical analyses of non normative sexuality and gender variance Considering both personal and collective forces contributors extend individualized notions of queer neoliberalism beyond those typically set in Western queer theory Along the way they recount a range of illuminating topics from shamanic rituals during the colonial era and B grade comedy films under Cold War dictatorship to toxic masculinity in today s South Korean military and transgender confrontations with the resident registration system More broadly Queer Korea offers readers new ways of understanding the limits and possibilities of human liberation under exclusionary conditions of modernity in Asia and beyond Contributors Pei Jean Chen John Song Pae Cho Chung kang Kim Timothy Gitzen Todd A Henry Merosé Hwang Ruin Layoung Shin Shin ae Ha John Whittier Treat

Islam Beyond the Violent Jihadis Ziauddin Sardar, 2016-04-07 Islam has been corrupted A virulent strain of the religion manifests itself in bloodthirsty mutations such as Boko Haram in Nigeria and the terrifying spectre of ISIS But behind the atrocities and turmoil lie many different versions and visions of Islam each struggling to survive in a rapidly changing world Ziauddin Sardar with inimitable wit and intelligence chronicles the diversity and richness of Islam and in doing so answers a host of frequently asked questions Is Islam inherently violent and misogynistic Why do young men and women choose to join the jihadi caliphate What part should Muhammad s teachings play in our own times Islam Beyond the Violent Jihadis argues for a pluralistic and reflective religion with a distinguished past but one that appears to have been wrenched from its noble origins by rigid fundamentalism In examining how we have nourished the rise of Islamic jihadi groups Sardar urges us all to work together to preserve the sanity of our world

Mobilities, Boundaries, and Travelling Ideas Manja Stephan-Emmrich, Philipp Schröder, 2018-04-17 This collection brings together a variety of anthropological historical and sociological case studies from Central Asia and the Caucasus to examine the concept of translocality The chapters scrutinize the capacity of translocality to describe in new ways the multiple mobilities exchange practices and globalizing processes that link places people and institutions in Central Asia and the Caucasus with others in Russia China and the United Arab Emirates Illuminating translocality as a productive concept for studying cross regional connectivities and networks this volume is an important contribution to a lively field of academic discourse Following new directions in Area Studies the chapters aim to overcome territorial containers such as the nation state or local community and instead emphasize the significance of processes of translation and negotiation for understanding how meaningful localities emerge beyond conventional boundaries Structured by the four themes crossing boundaries travelling ideas social and economic movements and pious endeavours this volume proposes three conceptual approaches to translocality firstly to trace how it is embodied narrated virtualized or institutionalized within or in reference to physical or imagined localities secondly to understand locality as a relational concept rather than a geographically bounded unit and thirdly to consider cross border traders travelling students business people and refugees as examples of non elite mobilities that provide alternative ways to think about what global means today Mobilities Boundaries and Travelling Ideas will be of interest to students and scholars of the anthropology history and sociology of Central Asia and the Caucasus as well as for those interested in new approaches to Area Studies
