Excerpt from The Life of Shivaji Maharaj Founder of the Maratha Empire

At a time when the whole of the Indian Continent is entering upon a new phase of political life and bold schemes of social and political reconstruction are being daily pressed for acceptance no apology would seem to be necessary for the publication of a new life of Shivaji. For among the glittering multitude of mighty kings whose names adorn the pages of Indian History the name of Shivaji stands forth in bold relief as the author of a momentous national revival that changed the destinies of India. And this is a fact allowed by all historians even though the editors of the Rulers of India Series have chosen to ignore him and denied him a place in their Series while including many other Rulers who were more or less mediocrities when compared with the great Shivaji. If ever in the pre-British period of Indian History there was anything that might be compared with the great national movements of Western countries it was the political movement which laid the foundations of the Maratha Swarajya. And that movement would have been utterly destitute of all its national glory and significance were it not for the genius and originality of one master mind who presided over the whole event, built a nation out of chaos and breathed life and purpose into the dead clay and disjecta membra of Maharashtra society and institutions. Such a man was Shivaji. Of the empire which he built up only a few fragments have escaped the ravages of time. The rest has crumbled down and gone the way that all great empires in the world have gone. But the spirit of it has remained behind. He has left no pyramids, no rock-cut temples, no architectural marvels to attest his greatness. But the name of Shivaji still lives to kindle and inspire the growing manhood of Maharashtra. Excerpt follows: In short the cantonment at Pedgaon served Mughal advanced base for some years after exactly as Aurangzib's camp at Brahmapuri 90 miles S.E. of it did twenty two years later when the Mughal empire had extended further south. It was most probably in this year 1673 that Shivaji met with a sore disappointment. The fort of Shivner a mile west of Junnar was no doubt of strategic importance as it guarded the Mughal frontier in the north of the Puna district and blocked the shortest route by which he could sally out of North Konkan to overrun Mughal Deccan. But what gave it the greatest value in Shivaji's eyes was that it was his birth place. The Mughal governor of Shivner was Abdul Aziz Khan, a Brahman convert. But Z.C. asserts that he besieged Junnar i.e. Shivner in Sept 1670 to Islam and one of the most faithful and valued servants of Aurangzib. Shivaji promised him mountains of gold for surrendering the fort into Maratha hands and he pretending consent received the money appointed a day for the delivery and asked Shivaji to send 7,000 cavalry to take the fort over. But Abdul Aziz at the same time secretly informed Bahadur Khan of the plot. The Maratha army fell into an ambush planned by the Mughals and retired in disappointment with heavy loss. Fryer i. 339-340. 7 Raids into Kanara and S. Maharashtra 1673. In another direction however a wide door of conquest was now opened to the Marathas. AH Adil Shah II died on 24th Nov 1672 and in a few months the Government of Bijapur fell into disorder and weakness. This was Shivaji's opportunity. On 5th March 1673 he got possession of Panhala a second time by bribery and early in September he secured the hill fort of Satara by the same means.
