Lethal Elites Alex Alvarez, Richard R. Fernández, 2025-11-13 This eye opening book highlights the role of elites in constructing systems of persecution and extermination during the Holocaust Being highly educated or living within a certain social class doesn't prevent us from being lured into destructive systems especially when they operate to our benefit The perception that the Holocaust was largely a crime carried out by ill educated thugs acting on nationalistic hysteria and xenophobic prejudice is a myth Leaders from many sectors of society including industry science and religion came to support and enable the Nazi government often due to the ways in which they were able to profit and benefit from the policies of persecution and genocide With both a social science and historical approach Lethal Elites highlights and assesses the ways in which the influence training and expertise of the most powerful and best educated were used in service to the genocidal agenda of the National Socialist Regime

Baptism Of Fire Nathan

M. Greenfield, 2008-10-20 The Second Battle of Ypres was by any definition a brutal event in a brutal war. The already terrible conditions of trench warfare punctuated by the unimaginable horror of shell fire that turned men into pink mist became even worse when the Germans introduced chlorine gas. But despite the terror the battle marked a key moment in the formation of Canadian identity and pride. After the Germans' initial gas attack opened a 12 kilometre long hole in Allied lines it was the heroic 1st Canadian Division men who had been in the trenches for just over a week who rushed to fill the gap and block the enemy advance. Drawing on never before published material Nathan M. Greenfield, author of The Battle of the St. Lawrence, presents a gripping new account of the Second Battle of Ypres. Here are the voices of the soldiers themselves, both Canadian and German, reaching across more than 90 years with a stunning immediacy.

Death by Design Eric Katz, 2006 Through a selection of primary and secondary sources Death by Design examines the uses of technology during the Holocaust and the specific ways in which scientists, architects, medical professionals, businessmen and engineers participated in the planning and operation of the concentration and extermination camps that were the foundation of the final solution. The book discusses the overriding intellectual, ethical and philosophical implications of the Nazis' use of science and technology in their killing operations.

War Crimes and War Crime Trials John C. Watkins, John Paul Weber, 2006 This is both a casebook of selected war crime decisions by various national and international tribunals in the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries as well as a brief historical account of the geopolitical, diplomatic and military events surrounding them. The text is divided into six parts arranged in chronological order beginning with the Hague Peace Conferences of 1899 and 1907 up to the Summer 2004 decisions by the Supreme Court of the United States which dealt with transnational terrorism committed by United States citizens as well as the Guantanamo Bay, Cuba detainees held under the authority of the Bush Administration. War Crimes and War Crime Trials contains edited excerpts from forty-four judicial opinions embellished with a congeries of international, national, military and political documents that add context to the case law. The editors have included fairly extensive selections from some of the major materials that have surrounded subsequent war crime litigation. Also included are an epilogue by Michael Ignatieff, an eleven-entry appendix, a glossary containing over 200 words, a reference section of over 1,400 citations from a wide variety of legal, historical and international relations literature and a name and subject index.

War Crimes and War Crime Trials: From Leipzig to the ICC and Beyond Cases, Materials and Comments edited by John C. Watkins Jr and John Paul Weber is the most complete book on the subjects to date. In these challenging times it is an essential reference for all who study or are engaged in the events brought about by September 11, 2001. Frank J. Williams, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island and Member of the Military Commissions Review Panel, skillfully edited the book, weaving together an eclectic tableau of primary and secondary sources drawn from major court decisions and scholarly commentary over the past century. The result is a versatile stand-alone text and reference that should appeal to students of law, political science, criminal justice, history and international relations alike. CHOICE Magazine
